31 C 2020 004

32 EXECUTIVE ORDER

33 Full and Unconditional Pardon

34 Individuals Convicted of Possession of One Ounce or Less of Marijuana

35
36 Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of 37 Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution and 38 C.R.S. §16-17-102(2), I, Jared Polis, Governor of the State of Colorado,
39 hereby issue this Executive Order granting full and unconditional pardons 40 to individuals convicted of possession of one (1) ounce or less of 41 marijuana in the State of Colorado under C.R.S. §12-22-404, et seq.,
42 C.R.S. §12-22-412, et seq., C.R.S. §18-18-106, et seq., and C.R.S.
43 §18-18-406, et seq.

45 I. Background

46 On November 6, 2012, Coloradans passed Amendment 64, a State
47 constitutional amendment that was initiated by the people of Colorado 48 that legalized consumption and possession of limited amounts of 49 marijuana for those twenty-one (21) years of age or older in the State of 50 Colorado. Article XVIII, Section 16 became part of the Colorado
51 Constitution on December 10, 2012, and legalized possession, use, 52 display, purchase, or transport of one (1) ounce or less of marijuana.

54 On June 15, 2020, the Colorado General Assembly passed the 55 bipartisan House Bill 20-1424 ("HB 20-1424" or "Bill"), Social Equity
56 Licensees in Regulated Marijuana, which I signed into law on June 29,

1 2020. The Bill amends C.R.S. §16-17-102, to allow the Governor to grant
 2 pardons to a class of defendants who were convicted of possession of up
 3 to two (2) ounces of marijuana.

4
 5 Pursuant to the authority granted to me by HB 20-1424, I hereby 6 grant full and unconditional pardons to individuals convicted of 7 possession of one (1) ounce or less of marijuana in the State of Colorado
 8 subject to the grant of clemency, below. My decision today is a reflection
 9 of current law in Colorado, where possession of one (1) ounce or less of 10 marijuana is no longer a crime.

11 12 II. Grant of Clemency

13 A. All individuals previously convicted in the State of Colorado
 14 of a petty offense, misdemeanor, or felony for possession of one (1) 15 ounce or less of marijuana under the following provisions are hereby 16 granted a full and unconditional pardon for that conviction. This 17 Executive Order only applies to convictions of one (1) ounce or less of 18 marijuana and no other charges or convictions are pardoned by this 19 Executive Order.

21 Conviction Offense	Charge Level	Statute (C.R.S.)
22 Possession of one (1) 23 ounce or less of 24 marijuana	Petty Offense, Misdemeanor, and Felony	§12-22-404, et seq.
25 Possession of one (1) 26 ounce or less of 27 marijuana	Petty Offense, Misdemeanor, and Felony	§12-22-412, et seq.
28 Possession of one (1) 29 ounce or less of 30 marijuana	Petty Offense, Misdemeanor, and Felony	§18-18-106, et seq.
31 Possession of one (1) 32 ounce or less of 33 marijuana	Petty Offense, Misdemeanor, and Felony	§18-18-406, et seq.

34
 35 B. For the individuals pardoned in this Executive Order, all rights
 36 of citizenship associated with the pardoned conviction are restored in full 37 without condition. All civil disabilities and public sufferings associated 38 with the pardoned conviction are removed.

39
 40 C. I direct the Department of Public Safety, through the Colorado
 41 Bureau of Investigation, to develop a process to indicate on criminal 42 background checks which individuals' convictions have been pardoned
 43 pursuant to this Executive Order.

 45 GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado
 46 this first day of October, 2020.

MESSAGE(S) FROM THE GOVERNOR

39 I certify I received the following on the 13th day of January, 2021, at 40 5:54 p.m. The original is on file in the records of the House of 41 Representatives of the General Assembly.

Robin Jones,
Chief Clerk of the House

45

46 The 73rd General Assembly
47 First Regular Session
48 State Capitol
49 200 E. Colfax Avenue
50 Denver, Colorado 80203

51

52 Dear Honorable Members of the General Assembly, 53

1 Welcome to the First Regular Session of the 73rd General Assembly. I
2 want to welcome those first-time lawmakers, and thank you for you for 3 choosing to give back through public service; I also want to applaud our 4 returning legislators, as well as those whose service has concluded. You came 5 together not once, but two separate times to provide much needed relief to 6 Coloradans. You stepped up to answer the call, even when it meant increased
7 risk to your own health, passing legislation supporting our small businesses,
8 providing rent and utility assistance, increasing food access, and more.
9

10 These are extraordinary times, and this legislative session will look
11 different than many others, including the delay of our public State of the State
12 address. I very much look forward to addressing you all in-person in February
13 when the General Assembly reconvenes following the coming recess. For now, 14 however, I wanted to provide a brief update on our great state following one of 15 the most challenging years in Colorado history.
16

17 Over these last 10 months, Coloradans have been truly tested, and no
18 one has been left untouched by this pandemic. We've all felt the impacts, 19 whether economic or health related, and I'm proud of how Coloradans have 20 reacted in the face of such challenges.

22 On March 5, Colorado confirmed its first case of COVID-19, and since 23 then our lives have been transformed. In the weeks leading up to this first case, 24 we worked closely with the Colorado Department of Public Health and 25 Environment to prepare for when the virus would reach our state, and acted 26 swiftly once the first case was confirmed to declare a state of emergency and 27 initiate a statewide response that prioritized the health and safety of Coloradans.
28

29 The early weeks of the pandemic saw nationwide shortages of critical
30 personal protective equipment (PPE) and testing supplies, and with little from 31 the federal government, we had to create our own supply chains and secure our 32 own equipment. We worked to negotiate key deals, including a 17-month
33 contract with Honeywell for 6 million masks to keep our front line health care
34 workers safe. Over the course of this pandemic, Colorado has gone from being 35 able to run 160 tests per day at the state lab to more than 50,000 across our 36 public and private partners. And we were the first state in the country to stand 37 up a drive-through testing site, followed by more than 50 community testing 38 sites across the state.
39

40 We prioritized transparency by holding press conferences multiple times
41 per week to give Coloradans a clear picture of our epidemiological trends, 42 quickly establishing public facing dashboards and data visualizations, and 43 encouraging everyone to keep #DoingMyPartCO to spread science-based 44 information about steps Coloradans can take to protect themselves and others
45 from the virus.

47 As the health crisis unfolded, the economic effects of the virus began to 48 take form. Coloradans struggled to make ends meet, from small business
49 owners wondering how they would stay open to Coloradans who weren't sure
50 where their next meal was coming from. We quickly stood up the Colorado
51 COVID Relief Fund and partnered with the philanthropic community to help
52 raise money to support local non-profits and organizations working with people
53 directly impacted by the pandemic. To date, the fund has awarded more than 54 $23 million to nearly 1,000 organizations across all 64 counties.

1 Early in the crisis we assembled the Economic Stabilization and Growth
2 Council, led by Secretary Federico Pena and other business and community
3 leaders, and acted on their recommendations to mitigate the pandemic's impact
4 on our economy. We cut red tape for small businesses and streamlined
5 government services.

6
7 In late March, after working closely with our federal delegation,
8 Congress finally acted to provide much-needed relief through the CARES Act.
9 We worked with legislative leadership to distribute $1.674 billion in federal 10 funds from the CARES Act to support school districts, boost higher education
11 institutions, help Coloradans with housing costs and food assistance, and more.

12
13 I'm incredibly proud that we were one of the first states in the country
14 to come out of stay at home and begin slowly reopening our economy, leading 15 to a summer of strong economic activity while successfully suppressing the 16 virus. Due in part to that successful summer, our overall economy remains one 17 of the strongest in the country.

19 And we continue doing everything we can to take care of our own. In 20 order to help Coloradans who had been hardest hit by the pandemic, in 21 partnership with legislative leadership, I took action to provide direct payments 22 of $375 to more than 400,000 who had faced unemployment during the 23 pandemic.

25 In addition to the urgent action we took together to address the COVID
26 crisis, we worked together with Colorado lawmakers to pass and sign legislation
27 to address our nation's racial reckoning, like SB20-219, Enhance Law
28 Enforcement Integrity Act. I also signed an executive order directing the 29 Department of Personnel & Administration to lead efforts on furthering equity, 30 diversity, and inclusion within our state government and will look to make 31 additional progress on ensuring that we truly can build a Colorado for all this 32 session.

34 This past year, Colorado was also hit with the largest wildfires in our 35 state's history, forcing many Coloradans to flee from their homes, unsure if they 36 would be able to return. Extreme statewide drought laid the foundation for these 37 devastating fires, showing us that climate refugees don't just live on the coasts.
38 First responders had to adapt to the reality of fighting fires while keeping
39 themselves safe from the virus. The communities impacted are still picking up 40 the pieces today, showing the true resilience of Coloradans and the need for 41 continued action to address the climate crisis we face.

42
43 Over the fall, COVID cases across the nation and in Colorado started to 44 rise once again. As we worked to manage this new wave of infections, cases
45 and hospitalizations surged above Spring levels. While a Stay-at-Home order
46 was effective in March, we had more isolated disease transmission in this new 47 wave, more knowledge of the virus, and knew firsthand the economic impact 48 that a Stay-at-Home order had on our communities. In order to help manage the 49 crisis more locally, the state worked with local communities to create a
50 COVID-19 dial system that coded each county based on caseloads, positivity
51 rate, and other factors. Counties began to move further away from "green" and 52 more towards "orange" and "red" as the winter months got closer. The hospital 53 system began again to reach crisis levels.

1 After months of remote learning for many students, new evidence
2 suggested that being out of the classroom was having a devastating effect on 3 children and families, as well as worsening gender-based earning disparities in 4 the workplace. There was little indication that schools were playing a large role
5 in disease transmission, given that young children were significantly less likely
6 to catch the virus or transmit it. Armed with more information and the advice
7 of a new “Back-to-School Working Group”, the State released a “Roadmap to 8 In-Person Learning” with detailed steps to help every school district get back
9 to in-person learning as soon as safely possible. As we focused on standing up 10 the resources schools needed to be successful, we also supported innovation in 11 education. We stood up the Response, Innovation, and Student Equity (RISE)
12 fund to provide over $30 million to school districts, schools, higher education 13 institutions, and partnerships that have been disproportionately impacted by 14 COVID-19 to help them innovate and emerge stronger than before. And to 15 ensure the classroom remains one of the safest places for our children, we are 16 partnering with Binax to provide free, at-home testing for educators and 17 students across the state. The program will distribute 1 million tests per month 18 to schools across the state who opt in.

20 Last month, Colorado received the wonderful news that multiple highly 21 effective vaccines had been approved for emergency use, and would be 22 distributed to states immediately. Colorado once again moved quickly to 23 operationalize a plan to distribute vaccines to providers, prioritizing those most 24 at-risk, including health care workers and those 70 years of age and older, who 25 are significantly more likely to require hospitalization and to die from the virus.
26 It is vital that as we rapidly distribute the vaccine, we also do so through a lens
27 that ensures equity for our communities of color, including those with less
28 means, and those that live in hard to reach areas of our state. The unacceptable 29 alternative will result in our black and brown communities falling further and 30 faster behind than the rest of our state. The end is truly in sight as we work over 31 the coming months to ensure the general population has access to the vaccine
32 this summer.

34 Looking back, I am proud of how Coloradans have stepped up for each 35 other and their communities. Time and time again, we have proven just how 36 resilient we are as a state. This pandemic has exposed the cracks in our systems
37 and forced us all to examine how we can do better. We have an opportunity 38 before us to re-imagine Colorado’s future and rebuild in a way that truly creates 39 a Colorado for all.

40
41 I look forward to being with you all in February and providing a more
42 thorough update on the state of our state in person. Until then, be safe and thank 43 you for your dedication to our great state.

45 Sincerely,

46
47 (signed)
48 Jared Polis
49 Governor

21 Pursuant to House Rule 24, Representative Williams read a letter of 22 protest and was given consent by viva voce vote to have written reasons
 23 printed in the Journal.

25 January 15, 2021

27 Pursuant to Rule 24 of the Colorado House of Representatives, we 28 submit this letter as an official protest to the planned use of Joint Rule 44(g),
 29 which undermines the constitutional role of the legislature under the Colorado
 30 Constitution.

32 I. Preserving the Citizen Legislature

34 Colorado's citizens are struggling with job, health, and economic 35 uncertainties. We cannot continue to delay the vital work of the Legislature to 36 get Colorado families back on their feet.

38 This improper action lays the groundwork for transitioning Colorado's
 39 lawmakers away from being part-time, citizen legislators to full-time, 40 professional politicians.

42 Many of our rural colleagues have agricultural work that necessitates the 43 length of our regular sessions remaining within the traditional time frame the 44 voters established. Additionally, our suburban and urban colleagues, who are 45 already hard-pressed to find private sector work under the normal length of a 46 regular session, will be even more unlikely to find employment elsewhere if the 47 legislature meets throughout the year under Joint Rule 44(g).

49 Two outcomes are very likely to occur if we continue down this path.
 50 Either the General Assembly will be comprised of independently wealthy or 51 retired individuals, or the taxpayers will see an increase in the cost of 52 compensation and benefits to lawmakers in order to maintain the diverse
 53 socioeconomic membership it currently enjoys. These outcomes would unfairly 54 harm the voters who intended to create and maintain a part-time legislature in 55 the first place.

1 II. Reclaiming Legislative Authority

2
3 The General Assembly exists to deliberate and develop workable solutions
4 for all Coloradans. Its diverse composition and lawmaking processes ensure that 5 a variety of perspectives are considered before a course of action is determined.
6 In times of emergency, especially when the state is considering whether to 7 impose restrictions on economic activity or personal liberties, it is eminently 8 important for the legislature to meet, to lead, and to resolve issues.
9

10 By scheduling our regular sessions in fits and starts during a “declared
11 disaster emergency” the General Assembly is effectively abdicating its authority
12 and duty to represent the People’s will to the Executive Branch. In the current 13 instance, we have seen the Executive Branch “legislating” unilaterally for over 14 three-hundred days through the promulgation of countless executive orders.

16 CRS 24-33.5-704(4) allows the governor to renew emergency declarations, 17 but the provision was never intended by the legislature or the People to allow 18 those powers to continue unabated. There have been nearly as many executive 19 orders in the last year as the amount of bills passed in an average legislative 20 session. The governor’s emergency powers must be limited, otherwise our 21 system’s checks and balances are circumvented, and the legislature’s law-
22 making authority is usurped.
23

24 These orders have dealt with COVID-related matters, but they have also 25 gone beyond the realm of the virus to advance other priorities that deserved
26 debate. Due process requires that citizens have an opportunity to be heard,
27 especially before their liberty interests are infringed. By allowing the Executive 28 Branch to continue under the current course, issuing orders without meaningful 29 citizen input, due process is threatened.
30

31 The danger of allowing the Executive Branch to usurp the power of the 32 legislature by making orders that go beyond the law is a threat to the liberties
33 of the People guaranteed by our Creator and our Constitution.
34

35 While the state has no credible justification to arbitrarily classify
36 businesses as essential or nonessential - for it is not the job of the state to pick 37 winners and losers - if it is going to do so, it must recognize that the Legislative 38 Branch falls under the category of “essential.”
39

40 Our constituents expect us to work, to represent them. Like the vast 41 number of other state legislatures, we can develop protocols to ensure the public
42 health. It is no more dangerous for us to meet than it was for shopping mall
43 employees to work during the Christmas rush or Wal-Mart employees to work
44 every day.
45

46 It’s unconscionable the General Assembly would potentially take multiple 47 recesses during a “declared disaster emergency” when taxpayers, many of 48 whom have lost their livelihoods, are counting on us to resolve this matter as 49 quickly as possible so they can return to their normal lives. We are their 50 employees, and they are our boss; they are providing us a paycheck while many 51 of them go without.
52

53 The People deserve better.
54
55

1 III. Upholding Constitutional Order

2
3 We respectfully disagree with the decision to allow the Majority to count
4 calendar days non-consecutively. The term "calendar days" is not vague or 5 ambiguous. As the voters understood it when they passed Amendment 3 in 6 1988, the plain meaning is that of 120 consecutive, 24-hour periods, running 7 from midnight to midnight, with the first day beginning "at 10 am no later than 8 the second Wednesday of January of each year." We also believe this 9 undermines the role of the legislature in our constitutional system of separation
10 of powers and checks and balances.

20 Speaker Garnett addressed the members of the House of Representatives.

21
22 Good morning and welcome to your State Capitol.

23
24 It's my pleasure to welcome the public, our families, and each of you here in 25 the chamber to the grand opening of the Seventy Third General Assembly.

26
27 I know this year is different. I know we all feel pressure to lead our State
28 through an unparalleled crisis. I suspect much of the pressure you feel, like the 29 pressure I feel, comes from our own experiences this past year.

30
31 Like all Coloradans, we have watched friends and family struggle and face
32 severe economic pain. We have seen businesses in our communities close -- 33 some temporarily and some for good.

34
35 Some of our loved ones have faced health challenges. I know I'm not alone
36 in having an immediate family member contract COVID. That was scary.
37 And while hopefully like me, your loved ones have recovered, I know this is 38 not the case for everyone. Even those who did, may be facing long-haul
39 symptoms. Others may be struggling to pay back expenses.

40
41 Before I go any further, I'd ask you to join me in holding a moment of silence
42 to honor the thousands of Coloradans and hundreds of thousands of Americans
43 who have lost their lives due to COVID-19.

45 Thank you.

46
47 I also want to take this moment to immediately thank Rep. Caraveo and Rep.
48 Mullica for their service to those directly impacted by COVID. You all put 49 yourselves directly on the front lines. And in a building full of ambition, we 50 are all grateful for your willingness to put others ahead of yourselves in a real,
51 life-risking way.

52
53 In the last year, we've seen countless unsung heroes in every corner of our state
54 step up to protect their communities. Every nurse, administrator, doctor or 55 other health care hero in Colorado deserves every ounce of our gratitude, 56 admiration, and respect.

1 While these heroes have been at the forefront, we've all felt the effects of
2 COVID-19, whether physically, financially or let's face it, emotionally.
3
4 COVID can be lonely. COVID can be cruel. It does not discriminate based on
5 how good of a person you are - how much karma you've built up in your life.
6 For all of us, COVID has taken away the day to day joys we all now so greatly 7 appreciate and miss.
8
9 There are the daily reminders of things we have had to leave behind. For some 10 that may have been a morning routine at a local coffee shop or gym. For others
11 still, it may have been giving up Sunday worship with our community or a 12 weekly visit to our grandparents. I can't speak to each of these sacrifices and 13 losses, but I do know that we all want to get back to life as it was as quickly as 14 possible.
15
16 But just getting back to normal won't be enough. We need to build back
17 stronger for ourselves and the people of Colorado. To build back a life that 18 offers true economic opportunity and leaves no one behind. A life that affords
19 us all a little more time to enjoy the things we love, because now, with a year
20 of COVID under our belt, and a lifetime worth of empathy, we can all reflect 21 on the things that matter most to us all: Food. Shelter. Safety. Justice.
22 Equality. Prosperity.
23
24 Each of us -- collectively -- has an opportunity to be a part of something
25 meaningful here. Of creating a new status quo where these values are a reality.
26 But we won't get far if we go at it alone, if we fixate on the differences between 27 us instead of focusing on all the things that bring us together.
28
29 Let me say off the bat, I am SO inspired and excited to work with each of you.
30 I truly believe each of us has a unique role to play this session. Because as 31 much as today's speech is a reflection of the priorities I see for our body, it's 32 also an invitation to each of you to shape those priorities, to be part of those 33 discussions, and help build back a stronger Colorado, together.
34
35 My door is always open- to all of you. Good ideas have no party affiliation.
36 I want to encourage and challenge all of you to put aside any cynicism you
37 have faced, any fear that you can't make a difference, any belief that our tools
38 are too limited, too short-lived, too temperamental, and instead to step up.
39
40 The question isn't if we can make a difference. We ABSOLUTELY can. The 41 question is how we make a difference, and I turn that question to each of you.
42 To think about the difference you want to make this year. And how I, as 43 Speaker, can help you accomplish your goals.
45 For me, the formula for creating lasting change in this building has been the 46 ability to listen to others. Within my party, across the aisle, and with any 47 stakeholder I sat down with. Listening is the most successful trait in almost any 48 relationship, especially legislative ones.
49
50 You may have heard me say this before, but some of my best friends are in this 51 building.
52
53 Many of these great friends oppose basically every policy position I have. And 54 I oppose theirs. But that doesn't mean we can't work together respectfully. It 55 doesn't mean there aren't moments where we can get big things done for the 56 people of Colorado.

1 In fact, learning to appreciate the difference between the politician and the 2 person is what has allowed me to prioritize respecting others over taking policy
3 disagreements personally. We have to make the effort to truly befriend each 4 other and put our trust in our colleagues, even when we don't see eye to eye on 5 every policy proposal. It's the only way we'll conquer the enormous task ahead
6 of us this year.

7
8 I remember not too long ago, on a pre-COVID trip with a bipartisan group of 9 colleagues, how a moment of exhaustion and vulnerability led to the group
10 sharing things about ourselves, about our beliefs, our personal history, or faith.

12 Representatives Neville, Esgar, and McKean were there, among others. On the 13 first night of our trip, my wife, Emily, decided to share with the group that she 14 was 6-weeks pregnant. This moment of trust brought us all instantly closer and 15 made us not only better friends, but better colleagues as well.

17 Well, sometimes life offers us a sweet chance at poetic repetition. So today in 18 a bid to recreate some of the sense of family we created on that fateful trip, I 19 want to share with you all, for the first time, that Emily is pregnant with our 20 third.

22 So enough of all that. My central point, other than being a proud father, is that 23 we can find ways to build lifelong relationships with people in this building.
24 Don't be afraid to bring them in. To trust. To truly listen. Coloradans expect 25 it, as they should.

26
27 This session, our top priority will be to see our state out of the public health
28 crisis and to work to usher in a swift economic recovery for Colorado's 29 hardworking families and small businesses.

30
31 It's our job to mend the damage done by COVID - 19 and the economic 32 downturn it caused, but Coloradans rightfully expect us to do much more.

33
34 Our job as legislators this year is to level the playing field and give Coloradans
35 the tools and resources they need to forge this recovery on their own. To do so, 36 we'll need to help create a just and inclusive post-pandemic economy where 37 every Coloradan has a fair shot at success.

39 In order to ensure that we guide Colorado towards an economic recovery that 40 is swift, precise and equitable we need to have a detailed understanding of the 41 problem facing our state. And like so much else about 2020, the devastating
42 economic downturn caused by COVID-19 was completely unprecedented.

44 The impacts of this downturn have had disparate effects on individual business
45 sectors and communities. Whereas industries like hospitality and retail were 46 forced to conduct massive layoffs and continue to see their profit margins 47 shrink, other sectors have bounced back much faster, and some even saw their 48 businesses grow as COVID-19 changed the way consumers behave.

49
50 The recession was different at an individual level too. While many were able 51 to continue their work from home, unprecedented numbers of Coloradans lost
52 their jobs and are still unemployed. Communities of color and low wage
53 workers have been disproportionately impacted by the health effects, as well
54 as the economic effects of this pandemic.

1 People living in multi generational households, many of whom are Black and
2 Latinx, have had to face the impossible choice between keeping the jobs that
3 help support their families or giving them up because of the health risk.
4
5 Rural areas and urban centers were not affected in the same way. The Eastern
6 Plains and the Western Slope were not affected in the same way. Fort Collins
7 and Pueblo were not affected in the same way. And it's our job to make right
8 by every one of these communities. Let's get to work.
9
10 Of course, we are limited in our capacity to provide relief. So while we can't 11 fill every hole, we can certainly aim to provide support that is meaningful and 12 helps hardworking Coloradans and businesses thrive yet again.
13
14 That's why I am so determined to build on the progress we made last year and 15 craft additional economic stimulus that is thoughtful, precise and that boosts
16 our economy under the complex conditions we face.
17
18 I have reached out to all of you, Republicans and Democrats alike, and asked 19 for your input on how we can best help our state build back stronger by 20 investing in job creation, small business assistance, housing, rural economic 21 development, child care, and other areas where equitable relief is badly needed.
22 Thank you for the thought you put into these proposals. Now it's time to turn 23 common sense ideas into ($700 million worth of) real, tangible change for 24 hardworking families across the state.
25
26 Today I call on each and every one of us to again put our differences aside and 27 get economic stimulus to the finish line and out to Coloradans as soon as we 28 can.
29
30 If Representatives Sandridge and Herod can come together to cosponsor a 31 minority business relief bill twice, AND speak kindly and personally about 32 each other here at the well, then I'm confident we can literally do anything 33 together.
34
35 It feels almost impossible to think back so far in time, but let's remember that 36 before the pandemic, Colorado's economy was thriving.
37
38 New businesses were popping up across the state, big companies were 39 relocating their workforces to our downtowns, and individuals from across the 40 country set their sights on Colorado as a perfect place to live and work.
41
42 However, our great success was not evenly shared among Coloradans.
43
44 Housing
45
46 The economic scramble created by this devastating pandemic has given us a 47 once in a generation opportunity to forge a just and inclusive economy where 48 every Coloradan has a fair shot. But it's up to us to harness the opportunity and 49 make this equitable economy a reality for all.
50
51 So building back stronger will mean finding compassionate and measured 52 housing policies that put the interests of renters and working families at the 53 forefront without upending our economy.
54

1 With the Federal eviction moratorium expiring soon, building back stronger
2 will mean striking a compromise and finding a solution that avoids mass
3 evictions, and allows time for the federal assistance to flow into the state to 4 achieve a goal we all share - for people to keep a roof over their heads. We 5 have to step up.

6

7 Education

8

9 To all the parents out there, to all the educators out there, thank you.

10

11 This year has put teachers, students and parents through the ringer in a way
12 we've never seen before.

14 To the countless parents who balanced working remotely full time while also 15 caring for young kiddos or overseeing remote learning, we celebrate you. I 16 have a 5 year old and a 2 year old at home and this year has me thinking that 17 it's probably easier to run a State Legislature than it is to run a childcare center.
18 Although I bet there are quite a few similarities.

20 Our greatest success in education policy has come when we've struck a balance
21 between respecting the needs and interests of local school districts while setting 22 the necessary statewide expectations to narrow the achievement gap, eliminate 23 the COVID gap, and keep all of our students on the same page.

24

25 This year, let's listen to our teachers and commit together to restoring the cuts
26 from last year's budget, which will take a sizable bite out of the budget
27 stabilization factor...which I named in 2017 so we could all call it the BS factor.

28

29 And while we're on the topic of education, it's time we supported the next 30 generation of Coloradans by making needed investments in higher education.
31 We need to grow our talented workforce by training Coloradans for the jobs of 32 the future instead of importing talent from other states.

33

34 We need to step up and ensure the colleges and universities who serve our 35 Latinx, Native American, and Black students are equitably funded. It's long 36 overdue.

37

38 Transportation

39

40 Building back a stronger Colorado will also mean being thoughtful and 41 conscious about how we grow as a state.

42

43 We need to make sure our infrastructure is ready to handle the growing crowds
44 trying to make it to work on weekdays and out to the mountains on weekends.

45

46 That's why I'm committed to making this the year that we strike a meaningful
47 deal on transportation and make the bold investment that is needed to future
48 proof Colorado's transportation future.

50 I'm not the first Speaker in recent memory to stand here and say this will be the 51 year we get transportation done, but with your help and hard work, I'm 52 determined to be the last. At least for a while.

54 In order to make sure our transportation deal is a lasting one, we need to invest 55 in our local governments multimodal needs, fund CDOT's ten year plan and get 56 serious about actually repairing roads in our rural communities.

1 At the same time, we'll have to ensure that the electrification infrastructure is
2 in place for the market based shift quickly moving us towards electric vehicles
3 -- we have no time to waste
4

5 Health Care

6
7 It's not only the inequalities in our economy that were brought to the forefront
8 during this pandemic. COVID-19 has also highlighted and heightened the 9 massive disparities created by our health care system.
10

11 Our complex health care system creates corporations that win and patients that 12 lose. While we have some of the finest physicians and hospitals in the world
13 here in Colorado, far too many families are prevented from accessing this care 14 because of the cost, even when it could save their lives.
15

16 No parent should have to think about the balance of her bank account before
17 taking her desperately sick child to the emergency room.
18

19 No small business should face double digit small group cost increases year after 20 year.
21

22 And no one should put their health at risk by rationing prescription drugs
23 because of the cost.

25 The status quo is not working.
26

27 At a time when a whopping 77% of Coloradans support us taking bold action
28 to lower the cost of prescription drugs, inaction is not an option.
29

30 That's why this year we'll make drug affordability a top priority and why we'll 31 work to improve our health care system and make quality health care accessible 32 and affordable for all.
33

34 Climate Change

35
36 The effects of a changing climate are no longer a hypothetical threat. They're 37 a devastating reality. Last year's fire season consumed more than 625,000
38 acres of land, destroyed countless homes, threatened our rural communities, 39 and cost the taxpayers upwards of $200 million in fire suppression.
40

41 This year, we must prioritize funding for wildfire mitigation and prevention, 42 and continue our creative bipartisan work on this issue.
43

44 The cost of inaction on climate change is far greater than the cost of facing the 45 problem head-on and making lasting change.
46

47 That's why I'm determined to build on our progress and continue working 48 towards a clean energy economy that provides opportunities for workers and 49 hope for our children's future.
50

51 Climate change is an urgent threat, and we need to treat it like one.
52

53 Veterans

54
55 And while we're fighting the growing threat of climate change, let's make a 56 commitment to look after those who protect us against all other threats: our

1 service members and veterans.

3 Colorado has long been a destination and a haven for members of the armed 4 services, veterans and military families. We have a culture of service here in 5 Colorado, we have state of the art military bases and we have the Colorado
6 quality of life that is so enticing to all.

8 I'm determined to keep Colorado a great place for service members and 9 veterans to live, and to make sure that we look after those who have sacrificed
10 and risked their all to look after us.

12 Gun Safety

13

14 In the past few years, we've passed important, common sense gun safety
15 measures that have no doubt saved lives in our state. In its first year, the 16 Extreme Risk Protection Order law that was endlessly fear mongered has been 17 working just as we intended. Reports show that a majority of the protection 18 orders were filed by law enforcement, that groundless claims were rejected, and 19 that countless Colorado lives were saved because of it.

20

21 But the epidemic of gun violence persists, so our work must go on. This year,
22 we'll continue our efforts to promote responsible gun ownership and prevent 23 tragedies and atrocities before they happen in the first place. Let's get to work.

24

25 Criminal Justice Reform

26

27 Last year, we led the nation and passed a sweeping, bipartisan police
28 accountability bill that is already making an impact across the state and setting
29 an example for the rest of the nation. I'm committed to monitoring the progress 30 of this new law and filling gaps where needed.

32 Building back stronger means advancing justice in our communities through 33 reforms that will ensure integrity and fairness in our criminal justice system,
34 increase opportunity in Black and brown communities, and save lives.

35

36 I'm proud to say Black Lives Matter. But it has to be more than a slogan, let's 37 make it a policy priority.

38

39 The task ahead won't be easy, but Coloradans still embody the pioneering spirit
40 of the generations that came before us.

42 My family were miners and farmers who moved to Colorado after the Civil 43 War. My great grandfather graduated from the Colorado School of Mines in 44 1912 and mined in Eagle County. The other side were farmers in Brush, 45 Colorado.

46

47 My great uncle used to tell stories about why Coloradans on the eastern plains
48 had front yards. "It wasn't to have green grass or to keep up with the Jones.
49 It was to make sure there weren't rattle snakes within striking distance of the 50 children."

51

52 My family, like all of your families, were tough, resilient, never backed down
53 from a challenge and loved Colorado more than any other place in the Union.

54

55 The challenges Colorado faces are daunting. There's no denying that. In fact, 56 this may be the most consequential year for this General Assembly in recent

1 memory. But as I look out onto this body and at each of you here today, I'm
2 confident that we're the right bunch to get it done.
3
4 This body is diverse in our backgrounds, our characters, our experiences, and
5 our visions for the future of this state. I have always believed that our strength
6 comes from this diversity.
7
8 To overcome the great obstacles we face, we'll need the perspectives and 9 experience of rural cattle ranchers like Rep. Holtorf alongside urban 10 entrepreneurs like Rep. Alex Valdez.
11
12 We'll need the grit and tenacity of the Pride of Pueblo, Daneya Esgar just like 13 we'll need the soft spoken Quaker wisdom of Loveland's own Hugh McKean.
14
15 And this year, we're lucky enough to have in our midst certain backgrounds
16 and perspectives that are gracing the Golden Dome for the very first time. Here
17 with us today is Representative Iman Jodeh, the first Muslim lawmaker in 18 Colorado.
19
20 Representative Naquetta Ricks is here, proudly representing HD40 as the first 21 African Immigrant in the legislature.
22
23 And of course, Representative David Ortiz, a proud veteran and the first 24 lawmaker in a wheelchair, has already brought change to the legislature, just 25 with his very presence and representation.
26
27 Last year, as we wrapped up what became known as the 'COVID Session' in 28 June, I stood in the well and told you that sometimes we make history and 29 sometimes history makes us. We did what we could to minimize the damage
30 and get relief out the door quickly.
31
32 History made us.
33
34 Today, we have a greater understanding of this virus and how to handle it.
35 Coloradans are being vaccinated as we speak and the end of this pandemic is 36 finally in sight. Now, it's our turn: we have a chance to make history by 37 guiding Colorado towards a more prosperous, more just, and more equitable 38 future.
39
40 Some of our communities may feel battered today, but we are far, far from 41 broken.
42
43 Colorado is a state of upstarts and underdogs. Of fearless fighters and success
44 stories.
45
46 In this state, we climb soaring mountains, tame harsh winters and turn arid 47 lands into fields of plenty.
48
49 The uphill recovery and the many daunting tasks before us may be mighty, but 50 if we keep our hand steady on the tiller, they are no match for us.
51
52 With urgency and resolve, let's recommit ourselves to doing the people's 53 business.
54
55 Let's get to work.
56

1 Minority Leader McKean addressed the members of the House of 2 Representatives.

3
4 Welcome to the 73rd General Assembly, the 146th year that we have come
5 together to do the work of governing the State of Colorado.

7 It's a big thing, taking the oath of office, swearing to uphold the constitution of 8 the United States and Colorado. You represent approximately eighty thousand 9 Colorado citizens and all their hopes and dreams.

11 You sit at the same desks as the legislators in 1901, the chandelier casts the 12 same light over our work and we look out onto the Front Range of Colorado, 13 seemingly unchanged from over a hundred years ago.

15 But much HAS changed. The desks have a few cracks and the spittoons have 16 been replaced by filing cabinets which are increasingly replaced by iPads. The 17 chandelier is no longer a gas light but now shines with electrons harvested from 18 the wind and the sun and sometimes coal. The Front Range is still there but 19 isn't always as clearly visible as before as the numbers of people who populate
20 the Front Range of Colorado grows and grows.

22 And WE have changed. This is the most diverse legislative body in Colorado
23 history. A remarkable collection of people from all walks of life, some born 24 here, some transplanted, some from the ever more urban parts of Denver and 25 many from the far corners of our state. We have teachers and lawyers and 26 game wardens and veterans and community activists and we have moms and 27 dads and husbands and wives, traditional titles but ever more less traditional 28 roles.

29
30 A hundred years ago there were few women in the seats at these desks.
31 Although the first African-American representative, John Gunnell, was elected
32 in 1881, the first African-American woman, Arie Taylor wasn't seated until 33 1972, nearly a hundred years later. So it has taken a long time to have the kind 34 of diversity that we see in this room today. And we should be proud of where 35 we are.

37 Diversity is truly something to champion, it is the broadening of our 38 perspective and our work, and it's something that we should celebrate and 39 embrace as an opportunity to learn more. Just as we encourage more input on 40 our work in this building, providing new opportunities for public testimony, we 41 should always lean into the need for perspective.

42
43 Perspective, as a goal, means that ALL of our voices are important. All of us
44 have been chosen by our constituents to be THEIR voice in this chamber and 45 it really does take ALL of our voices to have what we do here matter.

46
47 It is the diversity of thought that keeps coming back to mind. No matter the 48 color of our skin, the ethnic norms we bring into the building, the near and far 49 corners of the world from which we come, the experiences we all have had 50 have formed us and formed the way we consider the future of our state. And 51 that is where the minority, the Republicans in this chamber come in.

52
53 We represent some of the most remarkable people and places in this state.
54 From Representative Holtorf out in Akron, Colorado and his Buffalo Springs
55 Ranch to Representative Will and his years as a game warden, hunting and 56 traveling the narrow canyons of western Colorado, we are the voices for a great

1 swath of our state that lies outside the population center along the Front Range.
2 I like to think that that's the reason for our windows with a view of the 3 mountains, a reminder that there is a great deal of perspective just over the 4 ridge.

6 The diversity I mention is a big part of the reason for the five hours of debate
7 on Rule 44 back in January. Take a moment to consider that none of the 8 members of the majority in this chamber have ever served in the minority. The 9 learned experience of fighting for constituents from the position of the minority 10 is unique and difficult to understand and it tempers the way we fight for the 11 constancy of this institution. The places we come from color the way we look 12 at things and the importance of things like rules, perspectives you might miss 13 unless what is being considered has been desperately important to you!

15 Shared experience begets humility, makes all of us better representatives and 16 gives us a wealth of understanding. It creates a shared foundation of experience
17 that serves the institution of the legislature well. It gives us a basis for 18 conversations of why there is a great deal of sameness about us and how we 19 approach what the people of Colorado need.

21 What becomes important, especially since we lack many of those shared
22 struggles, is the absolute need to have that other voice in the room. Any place 23 where we see a lack of a loyal opposition is where we see a dearth of 24 perspective, a lack of the tough questions that hone our solutions. As a body
25 we consider ideas that would improve the lives of Coloradans but as caucuses
26 we have far different ideas on how to enact those solutions and far different 27 lenses through which we view the relationship between the government and the 28 people. That tension is what we need more of, not less, and it's the reason we 29 show up to work day after day.

31 Coming to work each day in the role of the minority means that the majority of 32 our time we play defense. Defense against attacks on our freedoms, defense 33 against more and more pressure brought to bear on our families and their 34 paychecks. Defense against the laundry list of things government can do but 35 often without the debate about what it should do.

37 There is one thing, however, that we don't dispute. There is never a debate on 38 freedom. Freedom to live our lives, to observe a faith, to raise our kids as we 39 see fit and to pursue our dreams. The Declaration of Independence makes it the 40 most prominent ideal that we are united in believing, that there are truths that 41 are self-evident, that we each have unalienable rights, endowed by our Creator,
42 that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness, the very idea
43 of which I grew up with and what makes me a staunch Republican.

45 I am proud to be a Republican and incredibly proud to lead this caucus because 46 we have a message, more than ever before, in how we recover from this lost
47 year. We stand in favor of things that have stood the test of time, things that 48 are foundational in how government should be accountable to the people and 49 how we can all achieve our dreams by equalizing opportunity, not by 50 equalizing outcomes.

52 We believe that government is instituted to protect the rights of the individual,
53 unique to this American experiment. It is the role of government not to demand
54 more from its citizens but rather to protect their ability to succeed and live
55 without the tyranny of an unassailable ruling class.

1 We believe that government is best when it is as small as possible and that its
2 best work is done when it does the things we cannot do individually. My good
3 friend Steve Johnson, who once sat at a desk in this room, says that government
4 should never do what you can find in the Yellow Pages (if you can even find 5 a Yellow Pages these days).

6
7 We believe that, because government must survive on the success of others,
8 through taxation, it should be as transparent and accountable as possible.

9
10 We believe that government should respect the framework that makes most of 11 the things we see and hear and touch and taste possible. The engine that drives
12 our world? Free Enterprise.

14 This past year has been a tremendous test of those principles and we have seen
15 both success and failure. Let's talk about some of those successes.

17 The Five Star program was something the good people of Grand Junction 18 developed in the face of government restrictions and, in the waning days of 19 2020 we saw implemented statewide, enabling businesses and employees to 20 survive while adopting tougher health standards. It is a unique example of how 21 we can trust our citizens to do their best and protect their own interests, a 22 creative way to enable a high level of protection for customers and employees
23 and make it possible for families to put food on the table.

24
25 As the COVID vaccine arrived and was distributed there were inevitable
26 problems, issues with supplying the demand across the state. Local health
27 departments reached out and we worked with the Governor to get the vaccines 28 that were ordered where they needed to go, keeping the solution close to the 29 source of the issue and working together for the good of our state.

30
31 The very existence of the COVID-19 vaccine is a shining example of the value
32 of Free Enterprise and the symbiotic response of those in government and 33 private companies that could develop and distribute a world-saving vaccine
34 through Operation Warp Speed.

35
36 We hope to put COVID in our rear view mirror soon and, in so doing, we are 37 focused on the road ahead for our state.

39 Concrete and asphalt is a big part of that conversation. The lane miles and 40 capacity that this state needs are a vital part of how we grow out of the COVID
41 downturn. As many of us could testify, the weeks of March and April 42 quarantine last year reminded us of how we want to be able to travel around our 43 cities and across our state. The years of congestion and dangerous road 44 conditions have brought us all to the table and there is an energy in the room 45 to get something done.

47 We stand for a solution to this problem. We stand for the tremendous 48 importance we place on the safety of our Colorado motorists and their ability
49 to get to work and to play without putting their lives at risk. We stand for the 50 expansion of commerce that more road capacity will create. And we stand for 51 our voters. We must undertake the solution to our concrete and asphalt 52 problems with the voters in mind, voters who only 105 days ago told us they 53 want a voice on fees imposed on them.

1 The conversation in the last election was the latest in a series of questions that
2 give us insight into the minds of the Colorado voters, voters who sent each of 3 us here today. We have seen for the past several years that voters want to have 4 a say in taxes and fees, less of a burden from income tax and we have seen that 5 they have had a good understanding of the complex relationship between 6 Gallagher and TABOR. We trust our voters and we have an absolute necessity
7 to have our voters trust us.
8
9 If we play tricksy with the gas tax and a “gas fee” we might be able to solve the 10 transportation issues in a way not accomplished in the last couple of decades
11 but we might fail in the most important job we all have, to live up to the trust
12 voters have placed in us. It’s the devil in the details that gives us pause and it’s 13 the reality of what we need that makes our voices rise with caution. Trust the 14 voters of Colorado. Take this issue to them and be prepared to make the best
15 case for why we need to solve our transportation problems today and what it
16 will cost. Draw out for them the 10 year plan and show them along the way
17 how we are doing what we said we were going to do. It is the only way to 18 rebuild the trust with the people who have been so failed by a congested and 19 dangerous transportation system.
20
21 Trust is the most important commodity that we have, trust that we make 22 decisions in this building that are good for ALL of Colorado. The past few 23 years have seen an enormous amount of change for this state and many of those 24 changes are far different for the urban centers along the Front Range than for 25 the rural parts of Colorado. We have seen changes in our regulation of one of 26 our largest industries, affecting Weld County and Garfield County especially.
27 The type of changes in oil and gas permitting and regulation are driving a thirty
28 billion dollar industry out of our state and creating brand new issues, not seen 29 before in an energy rich Colorado.
30
31 Just two nights ago many of us in northern Colorado received a disturbing
32 message. It was a request to curtail energy usage between the hours of four and 33 ten PM because the extreme cold was pitting a high demand for electricity
34 against low production after several days when the sun wasn’t able to break
35 through the clouds and there was little wind. This caused a shortage of natural 36 gas, used to produce power when renewable sources can not meet demand.
37
38 All of the lofty goals of having 100% renewable energy were not sufficient to 39 both provide the electricity we all demand as well as the heat for our homes.
40 We should never have to make those choices, especially on the coldest day in 41 recent history. The 21st Century should not hallmark a return to the candles
42 and wood stoves of the 19th. We deserve better and must work for an energy 43 future that includes an “all of the above” approach, including nuclear and fossil 44 fuels and pumped hydro.
45
46 One of the less obvious lessons of this past year has been not only that the virus
47 affects our communities differently, both the higher incidence in minority 48 communities in our metro area as well as the negligible number of cases in 49 rural Colorado, but that the needs of those communities is far different as well.
50 What works in Five Points is not necessarily what works in Wiggins, what folks
51 in Boulder are ready and willing to do isn’t always the same as what is practical
52 in Montrose. Treating the state with a set of solutions that work for Front
53 Range Colorado is increasingly seen as a war on our rural areas.

1 We must do better and listen and engage with communities that are not like our
2 own and incorporate their ideas into the solutions we prescribe. From mask
3 mandates to animal rights to availability of fuel for agriculture we have to listen
4 to what folks say and be willing to modify what we do in order to accommodate 5 the needs of each community. It takes work and consistent effort and is not an 6 easy or comfortable task but it starts with listening and trying to understand.
7 We stand for Rural Colorado and we will put the years of social distancing
8 from farmers in the Arkansas Valley up against anyone in Fort Collins.

10 We all are frequently asked what we are going to do, what bills we are going
11 to propose, what initiatives we will support and I think we have pretty standard
12 answers. We are going to do what we think is best for our state. Colorado 13 deserves the very best ideas, the very best practices and the ethic of doing what 14 it takes for everyone to succeed. We come from different regions, different 15 communities, different backgrounds but we have so much in common that we 16 can, together, overcome all the differences in the world. We simply need to 17 listen and seek to understand before we act, to walk as much of a mile in 18 another person's shoes as we can and be reminded that the connection we all 19 share is that we are all just people. We wake up every morning, some of us put 20 on pants before our first Zooms, and we set out to serve the people of our state.

22 We are all here for a reason, with perspectives that help guide our steps, and 23 our state would be so much poorer if we weren't here, or if our words fell on 24 empty chairs. We stand ready to tackle the big problems of our state, to partner
25 with all of you in service to the people of Colorado. We might not always 26 agree, in fact I can guarantee that we won't, but I can also guarantee that we 27 will put our best ideas on the table.

29 We have a lot of things in common, things that give us the ability to disagree
30 and argue and debate respectfully. In fact I am willing to bet that most of us
31 started this morning at our kitchen table, hurrying to have a cup of coffee
32 before heading down here to get started again. That's what the people of our 33 state, even our country, are longing for. The touchstone of our normal lives
34 that means we are not always railing at each other from the most extreme 35 positions, that we are able to champion the things that we share and that we 36 need and are able to chart a course that takes into account the swath of our state
37 and country that have lost faith in their government.

39 That's the danger, that the prolonged arguments are never resolved in ways that 40 benefit the families of Fruita or Craig or Walden or Buena Vista. The danger
41 is that people lose hope and just retreat to their corners and the loudest voices
42 in the room win out. Make no mistake, I am here to present the case for why
43 it matters that there are Republicans in this room, much as the Majority Leader
44 would propose why it's so important for there to be Democrats. But in the end
45 the letters by our names are less important than the ideas we have. The people
46 of Colorado just want to know that we care about them, that their voices are 47 heard and that we are trying our best to make their lives better and give them
48 opportunities to thrive.

50 We are here. Right across the aisle. We are the voices for millions of 51 Coloradans and we stand ready to begin the long path of recovery from the 52 most wretched year ever. Join us.

55 House in recess. House reconvened.

1 On motion of Representative Esgar, the remarks of the Speaker and the
2 Minority Leader were ordered printed in the House Journal.

7 Jared Polis
8

9 Good morning everyone.
10
11 Senate President Garcia,
12 Speaker Garnett,
13 Leader Holbert,
14 Leader McKean,
15 Members of the General Assembly from across the great state of Colorado,
16 Lieutenant Governor Primavera,
17 Treasurer Young,
18 Education Commissioner Anthes,
19 Chief Justice Boatright,
20 Our dedicated First Gentleman Marlon Reis,
21
22 And joining us virtually, I want to acknowledge:
23 Attorney General Weiser,
24 Secretary of State Griswold,
25 Ute Mountain Ute Tribal Chairman Manuel Heart and Tribal Council Members, 26 Southern Ute Indian Tribal Chairman Melvin Baker and Tribal Council
27 Members,
28 Members of the State Board of Education,
29 Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court,
30 Members of the Cabinet,
31
32 My Fellow Coloradans,
33
34 I'm mindful that as I speak to you this morning, many of you are facing some 35 of the toughest times in your lives.
36
37 Too many of us have lost someone close to this terrible pandemic, battled 38 illness ourselves or dealt with the anxiety of having a loved one in the hospital
39 but not being able to be by their side. Many others have lost jobs that not only 40 filled days with purpose, but kept a roof over your family's head. These truly 41 have been difficult times for us all.
42
43 And as if the pandemic and resulting global recession was not enough, we have 44 weathered record-breaking wildfires that destroyed homes and claimed lives.
45
46 We've witnessed brutality inflicted on Black Americans, and grappled with 47 how to address systemic discrimination against communities of color.
48
49 And we watched in shock and horror as the foundation of our democracy itself
50 came under attack by a violent mob intent on overturning the results of a free 51 and fair election.
52
53 In short, this has been one of the most challenging years of our lifetimes.
54

1 But as Coloradans, we face down tough times with grit, and overcome them
2 together. And when I became Governor, I knew that leading our state through 3 good times and bad — but especially through darkness, whenever and however 4 it came — would be my most important responsibility.

5
6 Still, I never envisioned this...

7
8 I never imagined — I don't think any of us did — gathering in this room
9 separated by plexiglass and wearing masks — or that our kids would go months 10 without hugging their grandparents.

12 We've faced the unimaginable this year. And the state of our state, above all, 13 is a reflection of our strength and our resilience.

14
15 We've worked together to protect our families and our communities, by staying
16 apart. We've endured loneliness. We've put off joyous weddings, birthdays, 17 and graduations.

18
19 We've worn our masks — to save lives and to keep our economy going.

20
21 We've given what we could, and together, we raised almost $24 million for the 22 Colorado COVID Relief Fund, supporting more than 1,000 organizations in all 23 64 counties of our state.

24
25 I want to acknowledge and thank some of the Coloradans whose sacrifices
26 stand out, even among so many everyday acts of generosity and heroism.

27
28 Day after day, our brave health care workers put their own lives on hold and 29 make incredible sacrifices to save countless souls.

30
31 People like Toni, a nurse at UC Health in Greeley who continued to show up
32 for her patients while undergoing chemotherapy herself for Stage IV ovarian 33 cancer.

34
35 And Doctor Greg Golden, the son of a Colorado nurse and army vet, and father
36 to three beautiful children. He's spent many hours helping COVID patients in 37 the intensive care unit at Banner Health hospitals in Greeley and Ft. Collins,
38 and when Colorado's case rate started going down, he went to Arizona and then 39 Wyoming to help patients in our neighboring states. Dr. Golden and his 40 colleague Dr. John Cowden created a consistent process to care for COVID 41 patients, saving many lives.

42
43 Nelly is an environmental services technician at UCHealth Medical Center of 44 the Rockies in Loveland, who took extra precautions over the last year to 45 ensure that rooms in the COVID ward were sanitized and safe. And now she 46 is committed to getting this lifesaving vaccine to Latinos and as many people
47 as possible. Gracias Nelly por todo tu trabajo! Thank you Nelly for all of your 48 hard work!

49
50 I also want to thank our hospitals for your incredible service, from medical 51 surge planning to vaccinations. Colorado's hospitals have been our partners in 52 this pandemic and I want to thank them on behalf of the state for this strong 53 collaboration and partnership.

1 We are joined today by Toni, Dr. Golden, Dr. Cowden, Nelly and other health
2 care workers from hospitals across Colorado who have been working around
3 the clock to save lives. Please stand so we can recognize you and the gift of life
4 you have given to so many of us.
5
6 But the heroes of this pandemic are not only in our hospitals, they're 7 everywhere you look.
8
9 –The grocery store, agriculture, and food supply workers; the restaurant and 10 retail workers; and the truck drivers who continue to do their jobs under the 11 most trying of circumstances so that we can put food on the table;
12
13 –Our Colorado National Guard, law enforcement, and first responders who've 14 put themselves on the line to protect the health and safety of our communities;
15
16 –Our census workers throughout the state who did everything they could to 17 ensure an accurate count here in Colorado, because everyone counts;
18
19 –You, our legislators, who met urgently under challenging conditions during 20 the special session to get needed help and relief to those who needed it;
21
22 And finally I want to personally thank all those on my team who have led us
23 bravely across uncharted waters, with faith and persistence and very long hours.
24
25 Joining us today are Jill Hunsaker Ryan of the Colorado Department of Public
26 Health and Environment; Stan Hilkey of the Colorado Department of Public
27 Safety; as well as Lisa Kaufmann, my Chief of Staff, and Rick Palacio,
28 Strategic Advisor. Over this last year, Jill, Stan, Lisa and Rick have led a 29 coordinated pandemic response that prioritized data and scientific evidence.
30
31 I'm deeply thankful for our COVID Response team, our incident commanders
32 Scott Bookman and Mike Willis, our epidemiologists, our emergency
33 management professionals, our state employees at the Department of Public
34 Health and Environment, our Public Information Officers, local elected 35 officials, and folks who put their expertise to work because our community and 36 our country needed them.
37
38 I must share a special debt of gratitude for our partners in local public health
39 who are implementing the response on a day to day basis for their community 40 — against all odds they have worked tirelessly to keep their communities safe.
41
42 Some of the members of Colorado's COVID response team and local public
43 health are here today; please stand.
44
45 But tragically, as we know, not everyone has made it through. As of today,
46 Colorado has lost 5,655 people to COVID-19. Each loss seared into the soul
47 of our state.
48
49 And today, as many Coloradans observe Ash Wednesday, let us reflect on the 50 past and each of our sacrifices over the last year. As Ecclesiastes 3:20 reads -
51 "all go to one place, all come from dust and all return to dust."
52
53 In the words of the poet Hannah Senesh: "There are stars whose light reaches 54 the Earth only when they are gone and no more. And there are people whose 55 sparkling memory illuminates the world when they themselves are no longer
56 in our midst. These lights, which shine bright in the darkness of night, show

1 us the lighted path.”

2

3 I invite you all now to join me for a moment of silence to remember those we
4 have lost to this horrific virus. May their memory be a blessing.

5

6 The greatest way to honor the immeasurable sacrifices of the last year is to do
7 right by one another and prevent further devastation.

8

9 Our goals in Colorado have remained the same since the early days of this 10 pandemic: avoid overwhelming our hospitals, save lives and ensure economic 11 stability for Colorado’s families and small businesses until a cure or a vaccine 12 is readily available.

14 Thankfully, as we speak, the vaccine is making its way into communities and 15 into arms across our state. Today, Colorado has one of the highest vaccination 16 rates and one of the lowest transmission rates in the country.

18 We have worked day and night to ensure reliable and equitable distribution of 19 the safe and highly effective vaccine. And I’m ecstatic to announce that we are 20 well on our way toward reaching our goals. We have now vaccinated 60% of 21 all Coloradans 70 and older, which is a significant step toward cutting the 22 COVID death rate in our state by more than 75%.

24 We will continue pursuing every possible opportunity and innovation to get the 25 lifesaving vaccine to you and your loved ones as quickly as we can — no
26 matter who you are, no matter where you live. We are determined to leave no
27 one behind.

28

29 We can see the light at the end of the tunnel — but we’re still some months
30 away from reaching it.

31

32 We have to keep doing everything we can to save lives, to preserve our health
33 care capacity, and to sustain and grow the economy.

35 There’s an old proverb: when there’s food on the table, there can be many 36 problems. But when there’s NO food on the table, there is only ONE problem.

37

38 Many Coloradans have experienced this global pandemic not as a public health
39 crisis, but as an economic crisis.

40

41 Together we’ve taken extraordinary measures to help Colorado families and 42 businesses. We delivered critical housing assistance, food and utility 43 assistance, tax relief, loans and grants for small businesses, and we’ve sent 44 much-needed stimulus checks to hardworking Coloradans struggling to get by.

45

46 These bold measures have been made possible because of close, bipartisan 47 collaboration. I want to thank the leaders of the General Assembly, this one
48 and the last — Speakers Becker and Garnett, Leaders McKean and Neville,
49 President Garcia and Leader Holbert, and all the members who came together
50 last December to support a package of legislation that put Colorado families
51 and Colorado businesses first.

52

53 We didn’t let politics get in the way of action.

54

55 We should apply this spirit to all of our challenges — not just the unique ones
56 we’ve faced this past year, but the ones we’ve been grappling with for decades.

1 When the immediate crisis ends — and it will end soon — we are not forced
2 to go back exactly to how things were before. Here in Colorado, we have the 3 boldness to imagine a better future and we have the ability to bring it to life.
4
5 Let's build a future where every child receives the education they deserve —
6 no matter their zip code.
7
8 Let's build a future where our roads and highways meet the needs of our 9 dynamic and growing population.
10
11 Let's build a future where each and every person in our state can access quality, 12 affordable health care — not just now, but always.
13
14 Let's build a future in which the natural Colorado beauty that inspires us
15 everyday is protected.
16
17 Let's make good on the promise of a Colorado where people from all walks of 18 life don't just get by, but thrive.
19
20 It starts with investments that will create good jobs and give our economy a 21 boost, helping us recover faster and stronger. From tax relief and loans for 22 small businesses — to bolstering key industries like tourism and renewable 23 energy — to investments in our main streets, the heart of our communities.
24
25 These are key proposals in my budget request that will jumpstart our economy,
26 but we know we can't stop there. We have a once in a generation opportunity 27 to not just build back stronger than where we were before the pandemic, but 28 fundamentally reimagine Colorado's future. And to make that vision a reality,
29 Colorado needs the best ideas from both parties, so that together, we can rise
30 to meet the challenge before us. Nothing could be more important.
31
32 My budget request moves forward vital projects, starting with much-needed
33 repairs on roads across Colorado — from the Eisenhower Tunnel to the rural 34 roads that our farmers and ranchers rely on. We're going to make it easier for 35 Coloradans and visitors to travel our great state — accessing the ski resorts and 36 public lands that we love — while reducing traffic and improving our vibrant,
37 beloved main streets in the process.
38
39 We will invest in our rural communities, continue bringing broadband to every 40 corner of our state so that students and small business owners from Fort 41 Morgan to Fruita can seize opportunity.
42
43 And we must work to protect the natural splendor of our state, and the animals
44 with whom we share it, by maintaining our public lands and continuing to 45 invest in wildlife crossings and migration corridors.
46
47 These shovel-ready projects are tried-and-true measures to boost the economy
48 in tough times — creating good jobs for hardworking Coloradans while 49 improving the quality of life for all of us.
50
51 Looking ahead, we see transportation changing before our very eyes: more 52 deliveries, car shares and ride shares. I look forward to working with you to 53 accelerate electrification, expand multimodal transit options, save commuters
54 money on gas, reduce emissions, and improve air quality.
55

1 As our transportation habits change, so should the way we support our
2 transportation system. We should reduce vehicle registration fees to save
3 people money and support the recovery, while modernizing the way we fund
4 our transportation system. I want to thank Senator Fenberg, Senator Winter,
5 Speaker Garnett, and Representative Gray for their leadership on this important
6 and challenging issue and their work to bring together the business community,
7 local governments, and environmental advocates around the important need to 8 reduce traffic.

9
10 And as Coloradans face tough times, we need to help folks get back on their 11 feet and make life more affordable in our state — from job training, to more
12 affordable housing, to reducing the tax burden on middle-class families.

14 From the start of my administration, we have worked together to make 15 Colorado's tax code more fair by getting rid of special interest tax breaks that 16 benefit the few, and using those savings to lower taxes for the rest of us.

17
18 This year I propose we eliminate the business personal property tax for tens of 19 thousands of small businesses, reducing paperwork and protecting them from 20 onerous tax requirements.

21
22 This will save small businesses time and money and let them focus on what 23 matters — their customers, their services, and their products.

24
25 To help hardworking Coloradans, I propose we double the Earned Income Tax
26 Credit, and provide up to $600 in tax credits per child for nearly 200,000
27 families in our state through the Colorado Child Tax Credit.

28
29 And I propose that we stop taxing seniors' Social Security Benefits. Many 30 seniors live on fixed incomes and we should not tax the Social Security benefits
31 they depend on. With the leadership of Senators Moreno and Hansen, and 32 Representatives Weissman and Sirota, I am confident we will get it done.

33
34 All of this, along with the voter-approved reduction in the state income tax, will 35 deliver the most substantial and comprehensive tax relief in decades for 36 hardworking Coloradans and small businesses.

37
38 This is why we were sent here by the voters — to take on the big challenges
39 and make changes that will improve quality of life in our great state.

40
41 Just look at how over the past few years, we've broken down barriers holding 42 young families back, and made Colorado one of the best places in America to 43 raise a family: family leave, childcare, kindergarten, preschool.

45 I thank the bipartisan coalition of lawmakers who supported putting Prop EE
46 on the ballot last year. Because of your work, and the support of over two 47 thirds of Colorado voters, we can now combat one of the worst challenges 48 confronting our children — smoking and vaping — while investing in one of 49 the best things for our children — universal preschool. And I look forward to 50 working with the General Assembly to continue making progress for young 51 families.

52
53 Now as we know — this has truly been a school year unlike any other. And 54 tragically, the effects have rippled throughout society, not only impacting our 55 children's education, but straining families and, in particular, forcing millions 56 of women across our country out of the workforce.

1 Many parents, disproportionately women, have had to choose between working
2 and caring for their children at home. Sadly, but not surprisingly, women of 3 color have been disproportionately impacted, with an 8 percent decline in labor
4 force participation over the last year.

5
6 When women across Colorado — across America — suffer, then our 7 communities and our state suffer too.

8
9 I was fortunate to be surrounded by strong women throughout my life. Many 10 of you have heard me speak about my mother, or even met her. She's a very 11 important part of my life and it's been nearly a year since I've seen her in 12 person.

14 When I was growing up she was not only a best-selling poet but president of 15 the small publishing company she founded with my father.

17 My grandmother, June, was sales manager of our family company for over 18 thirty years. She cooked amazing food, knitted up a storm, worked long weeks
19 in the office, and was loved and feared by sales reps around the country.

20
21 And now, I'm the proud father of a strong-willed daughter. She's six years old,
22 and I owe it to her to do everything in my power to support Colorado women,
23 and yes, men too, as they work to balance the already difficult task of raising
24 their families in a time of uncertainty. And while of course we need in-person
25 school now for our kids, we also need it for Colorado moms and dads.

26
27 It's simple: our efforts to support Colorado families fall short if we can't ensure 28 Colorado women a secure place in our economy.

29
30 That's why it's so important that — with the Leadership of Senators Danielson
31 and Pettersen, and now Senator Buckner and Representative
32 Gonzales-Gutierrez — we passed a law to ensure women are paid the same as 33 men.

34
35 As we recover, we will continue to grow economic opportunities for women 36 across our state, and support hard-working parents by keeping kids in the 37 classroom.

38
39 This crisis has forced us to realize the value of things we once took for granted, 40 like having a safe place where our children can learn and thrive and play and 41 grow.

42
43 As parents of two young children, Marlon and I share the newfound
44 appreciation that so many Coloradans feel for teachers and other school 45 professionals who have gone above-and-beyond to make sure our kids are 46 learning under extremely challenging circumstances.

47
48 Like Michelle Grimes, a fourth grade teacher at Clayton Elementary in the 49 Englewood School District. Michelle has risen to the occasion, as so many 50 educators have, in her case by spending hours looking for students who fell off
51 of remote learning and getting them back on track. She even helped organize 52 a gift drive for her students and their families - sharing a little joy during tough
53 times. I'm so excited to have Michelle here with us today -- thank you for your 54 commitment to your students.

55
56

1 I salute all of the children, parents, and educators who have done their best to 2 adapt.

3
4 It's why we should continue the General Assembly's bipartisan efforts, led by 5 Representative McCluskie and Senator Lundeen's work through the School
6 Finance Interim Committee, to make funding more equitable and
7 student-centered, so that every Colorado child — and we do mean every child
8 — has a chance to succeed. We should also seize the opportunity we have to 9 pay down our education budget deficit to the lowest levels in more than a 10 decade.

12 Improving education is so important. But we know that it is only one part of 13 our obligation to create a more just society where everyone has an opportunity 14 to succeed.

16 In the past two years, the legislature has taken tremendous bipartisan steps to 17 correct inequities in criminal justice, including bail reform, sentencing reform, 18 juvenile justice reform, and police reform.

19
20 But the ongoing effort to ensure opportunity and justice for all means much 21 more.

22
23 It means taking our lead from Representative Herod and Senator Buckner to 24 stop the school-to-prison pipeline, by investing more in school counselors and 25 less in overly harsh punishments.

26
27 It means honoring those Coloradans who have bravely served our country, yet
28 been dismissed from the military and prevented from receiving certain state
29 Veterans' benefits because of who they love. With the leadership of Senator
30 Moreno, Representative Ortiz, and Adjutant General Clellan, we will start to 31 right this wrong. I will be excited to see the Restoration of Honor Act reach my 32 desk.

33
34 It means partnering with Senator Gonzalez and Representative
35 Gonzales-Gutierrez to ensure state data isn't used to enforce a broken and 36 inhumane immigration system.

37
38 It means working with tribal leaders and strengthening our government-to-39 government relationships so that we can tackle the unique hurdles facing our 40 Native communities.

41
42 And it means addressing our unequal and unaffordable health care system.

43
44 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said: "Of all the forms of inequality, injustice 45 in health care is the most shocking and inhumane."

46
47 It's really our lives. That was true in 1966, and it's true over 50 years later in 48 the midst of a pandemic.

49
50 When the virus struck last year, we moved swiftly to boost our health care
51 capacity. And we took swift action to prevent folks from losing their coverage
52 — getting more Coloradans enrolled in Medicaid, and extending the enrollment 53 period for the state health insurance exchange.

1 Thank you for the bipartisan work of this legislature — and the work of our
2 Lieutenant Governor Dianne Primavera, who heads up our Office of Saving
3 People Money on Health Care.

4
5 I also thank the legislature — especially the members of the Joint Budget
6 Committee — for continuing the reinsurance program, which has reduced rates
7 on the individual market by over 20% across the board, and by even more in 8 rural areas.

9
10 We've made significant progress, but too many families still struggle to afford
11 the care they need. We look forward to working with this Legislature on 12 measures to save people money on health care by passing a bill carried by 13 Senators Jaquez Lewis and Gonzales and Representatives Caraveo and 14 Kennedy to reduce prescription drug costs.

15
16 And we look forward to adding an affordable Colorado Option that will give 17 Coloradans — especially in rural communities — more choice and savings,
18 when it comes to selecting a health care plan. I thank Representatives Roberts
19 and Mullica and Senator Donovan for their ongoing leadership on saving 20 people money on health care.

21
22 This pandemic has only further illuminated the stark inequities that Coloradans
23 of color, and those in underserved communities face. That's why each week
24 we are committing portions of our vaccine supply to Community Health
25 Centers, who every day, deliver health care to Colorado's most vulnerable, who 26 are often uninsured. We've also set up 58 vaccine pop-up clinics in rural and 27 urban underserved areas. This ensures that regardless of zip code, and 28 regardless of immigration status, no Coloradan is left behind.

29
30 I want to thank the Black and LatinX Caucuses for their incredible partnership
31 on this important issue and our continuing work to address ongoing disparities.
32 We can, and we will, do better.

33
34 This pandemic has also forced us to be creative as we've reimaged our health
35 care system.

36
37 Think, for example, of telehealth — including behavioral telehealth — which 38 isn't just a useful innovation in a time of social distancing. It's a convenient 39 tool for folks who want to receive care from the comfort of their own homes,
40 and it's literally a lifesaver for many Coloradans in rural areas who may live far 41 away from doctors and clinics and hospitals.

42
43 I also want to thank the Behavioral Health Task Force, which, under the 44 capable leadership of Michelle Barnes, developed the blueprint that will 45 streamline our mental health services, a far too often overlooked area of health
46 care. I appreciate the bipartisan sponsors — Representatives Young and 47 Pelton, and Senators Fields and Gardner — for taking on this vital issue.

48
49 In last year's speech, I thanked our brave Colorado firefighters who answered
50 the call when Australia needed help to contain one of the worst wildfires in 51 history.

52
53 Months later, the world watched as those same firefighters combated the three 54 largest wildfires in the history of our state.

1 As our homes and communities burned, panicked families fled for shelter,
2 leaving behind what — in many cases — had taken them a lifetime to create.

3
4 I'd like to take a moment now to thank our incredible Colorado firefighters,
5 who tirelessly, labored to save every life, every home, and every piece of 6 property they could — even in the midst of a global pandemic.

7
8 Our very own Department of Natural Resources Director Dan Gibbs answered
9 the call as a certified wildland firefighter, and fought alongside many brave
10 men and women against the Grizzly Creek and the Cameron Peak Fires. Thank 11 you Dan.

13 We are grateful to the fire chiefs and sheriffs who led those efforts to protect 14 our communities in a time of greatest need, and I'm honored to be joined here
15 today by Larimer County Sheriff Justin Smith who led response efforts for the 16 Cameron Peak and the East Troublesome fires.

17
18 And to the many others who couldn't join us today — thank you for your 19 leadership and your service.

20
21 I want to thank Senator Rankin, Representative McCluskie and all of the 22 members of the Joint Budget Committee for supporting wildfire response and 23 mitigation, which will help give Colorado the tools we need to catch and 24 suppress wildfires before they get out of hand.

26 But wildfire mitigation is only one piece of the puzzle. How many homes and 27 businesses must we lose — how many lives — before we resolve to meet the 28 threat of climate change with the seriousness it demands?

29
30 Transitioning to renewable energy isn't just the right thing for our health and 31 safety — it's the smart thing for jobs and our economy. That is why I ran on 32 a platform of 100% renewable energy by 2040, and that's why my 33 administration has taken bold action to rapidly move us toward that goal.

34
35 The private sector is already turning away from fossil fuels and looking 36 forward to a clean energy future. To date, we've successfully secured
37 commitments from electric utilities representing 99% of generation in our state
38 to reduce emissions 80% or more by 2030. Colorado is a national leader in 39 green energy jobs, the fastest growing job sector, precisely because we have 40 embraced renewable energy.

41
42 Addressing climate change isn't just essential to protecting our health and 43 building our economy. It's an essential part of protecting Colorado's iconic 44 public lands, which — as we've weathered this pandemic — we have learned 45 to appreciate even more for the sanctuary they provide.

46
47 Embracing the outdoors — being able to get away from the trials and 48 tribulations of the daily grind — has always been a big part of the Colorado
49 Way of Life. And when the crisis struck these vast public lands became our 50 escape — a much-needed retreat where we could go to feel normal again. To 51 be free.

52
53 Our public lands are a treasure we must never take for granted, and always 54 work to nurture and protect.

1 I want to thank the Legislature — and particularly the leadership of President
2 Garcia, Senator Hisey, and Majority Leader Esgar and Representative Will —
3 for providing the resources to open Fishers Peak, Colorado’s newest state park.
4
5 We’re excited for Fishers Peak and the potential it holds for the Southern 6 Colorado economy. But it’s just the start of what we can do together to keep
7 Colorado wild. Let’s go even further to protect these places for years to come 8 and leave a lasting legacy that future generations will be proud of.
9
10 By offering all Colorado vehicle owners the opportunity to purchase a park and 11 public lands pass when they register their vehicle, we can expand affordable 12 access to our great outdoors and ensure our state parks have a sustainable 13 source of revenue to improve trails, expand camping, increase parking, and 14 open new state parks. This kind of innovation embodies the Colorado way of 15 solving problems, and I thank Majority Leader Fenberg for his partnership on 16 this important initiative.
17
18 In the coming months, we will spend long hours together, working to build 19 back — not just to where we used to be, because, we know, that wasn’t good 20 enough, but to a place that is stronger and more inclusive.
21
22 No more band-aids over gaping wounds. We in this chamber have the power 23 to make bold transformational change that ensures our state lives up to its 24 highest potential. We can and will seize this opportunity.
25
26 To quote my favorite Star Trek Captain, Jean-Luc Picard: “Things are only 27 impossible until they are not.”
28
29 If the problems we face now were ever intractable, today they are not. If, at 30 some point in the past, we lacked the means or the will to tackle them, today we 31 do not.
32
33 Over the last year we’ve faced a global pandemic, historic wildfires, and an 34 unprecedented attack on our democracy. And now we have an opportunity for 35 rebirth -- for renewal — to rise from the ashes to fulfill the promise of a 36 Colorado for All.
37
38 Fulfilling that promise means historic investments in our people, our 39 infrastructure, and the natural riches and beauty that surround us.
40
41 It means helping Colorado businesses grow and create good-paying jobs.
42
43 It means eliminating the tax loopholes that benefit the few and well-connected 44 while reducing taxes for small businesses and hardworking Coloradans.
45
46 It means ensuring Colorado is the best state in the country to start and raise a 47 family by offering paid family leave, universal preschool, universal full-day
48 kindergarten, and truly affordable higher education.
49
50 It means saving people money on health care.
51
52 It means ending the systems that for many generations have allowed the color
53 of your skin, your gender, your ability, and who you love to determine the type
54 of health care you get, getting equal pay for equal work, and whether our justice 55 system will treat you fairly.
56

1 It's often been said during this pandemic that we are all in the same storm. But
2 we are not in the same boat. It's time to ensure that everybody has a sturdy
3 boat to weather any storm that comes our way.

4
5 As Coloradans, we overcome our challenges not because overcoming is 6 inevitable — because it's not — but because we choose to do the work, to 7 fulfill our responsibility. That is who we are. That is what we do.

8
9 So the state of the state?

10
11 This past year we've been bruised, battered and shaken to our core -- but 12 nevertheless the state of Colorado remains strong.

14 This terrible virus isn't done with us yet, but we are working hard to end this 15 pandemic. Coming out of this traumatic year, we are poised for bold 16 transformational change. If we seize the opportunity here in this chamber, we 17 can FINALLY live up to our fullest potential to TRULY create a Colorado for 18 All.

19
20 There's a lot of work ahead. But we're more than ready.

21
22 God bless you all, God bless Colorado, and God bless the United States of 23 America.

14 ADDRESS BY THE HONORABLE
15 Chief Justice Brian D. Boatright
16

17 Speaker Garnett, Senate President Garcia, distinguished members of the House
18 of Representatives and Senate:

19
20 This past week, I reached out to a longtime employee of the judicial branch.
21 I asked her how she was doing. She is normally very upbeat and positive. That 22 day, she was very direct. She responded that—for the first time in her 23 twenty-year career—she was not proud to tell people that she works for the 24 judicial branch. That broke my heart. But it also steeled my desire for 25 answers. I am here to tell her, the legislature, the governor, every member of 26 the branch, and most importantly, the citizens of Colorado, that we are going
27 to get this right: Where there was wrongdoing, we will address it. Where there 28 was an abuse of power, we will stop it. Where our policies are deficient, we 29 will change them. We want to know the truth. We recognize that the branch 30 faces a crisis of confidence in its leadership. We know that investigating and 31 addressing the allegations within the branch will be a difficult process, but we 32 are committed to seeing it through to the end: This will result in a culture
33 change, and we are going to make sure that happens.

34
35 When I say “we,” I mean every member of the supreme court. While we 36 frequently disagree on the difficult legal issues that come before us, we are 37 united and speak with one voice when we declare our commitment to this 38 cause. When I say “we,” I also mean our State Court Administrator, Steven 39 Vasconcellos, who started in that role shortly after the first round of allegations
40 came to light eighteen months ago. When I say “we,” I include the leadership
41 team at the State Court Administrator’s Office. When I say “we,” I also mean 42 the chief judges, court executives, and chief probation officers of courts across 43 the state—all leadership in the branch is committed to ensuring a safe and 44 healthy work environment. With the flood of news in the past couple weeks,
45 it is easy to lose sight of the fact that we have so many dedicated public
46 servants in the branch who care deeply about the citizens we serve. I know that 47 every member of the branch wants answers. I know that every member of the 48 branch wants answers and wants to get this right—everyone at the State Court
49 Administrator’s Office, every judicial officer, every clerk, and every probation
50 officer. Even though they may not be proud of me at this time, I want to say
51 here that I am proud of each and every one of them. In the end, I want them all 52 to be proud to say that they work for the judicial branch.

1 We have all heard the claims about the training contract. The document which
2 has been referred to as a memo has been released, and that has been the subject
3 of much conjecture. I am not here to comment on any of the claims and 4 conjecture—except to say that the branch takes allegations of misconduct by 5 judges and staff extremely seriously. The conduct described in the allegations,
6 if accurate, is unacceptable and cannot and will not be tolerated. We need to 7 know if human resources investigated any of these allegations, and if they did,
8 what action was taken. And if they didn't investigate the allegations, we need
9 to know why. What we need, first and foremost, is the truth. Therefore, I have 10 requested a full investigation of the circumstances surrounding the contract and 11 an investigation into each and every incident listed in the document. I have 12 asked the Governor, the Attorney General, as well as leaders of both parties in 13 the House and Senate to provide representatives for an independent panel that 14 will draft a request for proposal to first define the scope of the investigation.
15 Per our procurement regulations (we are going to do this “by the book”), that 16 request stays open for thirty days. Then, the panel will meet again and select 17 the independent counsel or counsels from those who submitted proposals. That 18 person or firm will then conduct the investigation. We hope to announce the 19 members of the panel this week.

21 With this procedure, the judicial branch will not have any say in the selection
22 process. We will cooperate with the investigation and will publicly release the 23 results. We also hope that the investigation will provide specific 24 recommendations for changes that we can make to ensure a safe and healthy
25 work environment for all members of the branch going forward. All we ask is 26 that the independent counsel conduct a thorough, efficient, and fair
27 investigation. Until the investigation is completed and any recommendations
28 are implemented, I am to be made aware of any new allegations of misconduct
29 and kept apprised of the progress of any investigation on a weekly basis.

30
31 I said that each and every justice is committed to reform. I would like to tell 32 you briefly who we are—not who we are academically or professionally, but 33 who we are as people. Since we do everything in order of seniority, I will start 34 with the most senior.

35
36 First, Justice Monica Márquez. Justice Márquez's roots lie in the San Luis 37 Valley, where the Márquez family has farmed and ranched for several 38 generations. She grew up on the western slope and graduated from Grand 39 Junction High School. After college, she served in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps,
40 working with inner city youth. Her teaching and community organizing 41 experiences in underserved communities inspired her to go to law school.
42 Throughout her career, she has worked tirelessly to promote diversity in the 43 legal profession, and she engages regularly with diverse youth, law students,
44 attorneys, and judges to build an inclusive legal community in Colorado.

45
46 Second, Justice Will Hood. Justice Hood and his wife, Diana, moved to 47 Denver more than thirty years ago with a desire to put their new law degrees
48 to use for the public good. Will has spent twenty-four years as a government
49 lawyer or judge. When he was last in private practice, he was the firm's pro
50 bono coordinator. Diana has spent twenty-nine years working at Legal Aid or 51 running a non-profit that helps abused children. They are most proud of their 52 two adult daughters, one of whom is a legislative aide combatting climate 53 change and one of whom is training to become a wildlife rehabilitation 54 specialist.

55
56

1 Third, Justice Richard Gabriel. Justice Gabriel grew up in a working-class
2 family in Brooklyn, New York. He is the first generation in his family to go to 3 college. Because he was able to attend college and then law school only with 4 the help of significant financial aid, he has devoted his over thirty-year career
5 to “paying it forward,” mentoring countless students and young lawyers,
6 educating the public about the judiciary through the Our Courts civic education
7 program, and promoting professionalism and civility among the bench and bar.
8 Additionally, you can’t introduce Rich without noting that he has played the 9 trumpet professionally for almost fifty years.

10
11 Fourth, Justice Melissa Hart. Justice Hart grew up in the Park Hill
12 neighborhood in Denver, where she and her family still live today. She was 13 appointed to the court in 2017. For eighteen years before joining the court she 14 taught at the University of Colorado Law School, where her scholarship, 15 teaching, and public service work were focused on anti-discrimination and 16 access to justice. She has carried those commitments with her to the bench. In 17 2018, Justice Hart helped launch Legal Entrepreneurs for Justice, an affordable 18 law practice incubator committed to training lawyers who will serve low- and 19 moderate-income Coloradans. She had continued to teach at CU and now also 20 teaches at DU, where her class this semester focuses on access to justice issues.

21
22 Fifth, Justice Carlos Samour. Justice Samour was born and raised in 23 El Salvador. When he was thirteen, political unrest forced him, his parents, and 24 his eleven siblings to flee the country. After receiving a death threat, the family
25 packed what they could in their van and left El Salvador forever. With visas
26 in hand, they made the five-day journey to Colorado. When they arrived, they 27 could not speak English, were in culture shock, and only had what they packed 28 in their van. Today, Carlos volunteers at Centro San Juan Diego as part of the 29 Our Court program, teaching citizenship classes to Spanish-speaking 30 immigrants, just like the classes he and his family took when they became 31 citizens. Before joining the court, Carlos was a district court judge in Arapahoe
32 County, where he presided over the Aurora Theater shooting trial.

33
34 Finally, Justice Maria Berkenkotter. Justice Berkenkotter is our newest 35 member of the court. As my first official act as Chief Justice, I had the 36 pleasure of swearing in Maria on January 4. She is a former trial court judge
37 and chief judge in the 20th Judicial District, who has spent years working with 38 stakeholders to develop innovative programs that address public safety, mental 39 health, and substance abuse issues, as well as to improve court operations.
40 Maria has two daughters who are also interested in the law—one was sworn in 41 to the bar in the fall of 2019, and one will start law school this fall.

42
43 At the risk of appearing selfish, I would also like to tell you who I am, since I
44 have given you my personal commitment to lead this culture change. I am a 45 Colorado native. I grew up the Wheat Ridge/Edgewater area and am a proud
46 Jefferson High School Saint. I decided I wanted to be a lawyer when I was five 47 years old after my dad—who was a lawyer—took me to work one day. He took 48 me to an adoption, and I remember that he made the two people involved so 49 happy—I thought he was like Santa Claus. After that, I never thought of being 50 anything but a lawyer, just like my dad.

51
52 Flash forward twenty-five years or so, and I am in court trying a case. At one
53 particular hearing, the judge treated me very badly, very intemperately. I 54 remember thinking that even if the judge was right on the law, there had to be 55 a better way of communicating. That was the first day I thought of becoming 56 a judge. A few years later, I had another experience that cemented that desire.

1 I prosecuted a murder case that dragged on for about two years due to the 2 defendant's significant mental health issues. Ultimately, the jury convicted the 3 defendant of first-degree murder. As a result, the only sentencing option
4 available to the judge was life in prison. I should note that this took place
5 before the Victim's Rights Act was enacted. When I asked the judge if the 6 victim's family could speak prior to sentencing, the judge—who happened to 7 be an excellent judge—unfortunately denied the request, announcing that the 8 court did not have any discretion regarding the sentencing. I will never forget
9 the faces of the victim's family. That day, I decided that I wanted to become
10 a judge, and I promised myself that if that ever happened, I would do
11 everything in my power to let people know that I cared and that I truly listened.
12 A few years later, I was appointed to the district court in Jefferson County.
13 That was twenty-two years ago. And treating everyone with dignity and 14 respect to the very best of my ability has been the cornerstone of my judicial 15 philosophy. And becoming chief justice didn't change that. That is why I am 16 serious about getting answers. Because, at heart, all of this is about how people 17 are treated.

18
19 Approximately eighteen months ago, our court realized that we had significant
20 issues within the Department that required immediate action. While the culture
21 problems were not caused by any specific individual—and I am not blaming
22 anyone—we realized that change was necessary. As a result, since that time,
23 almost the entire SCAO leadership team has been replaced. First, Steven 24 Vasconcellos became the new State Court Administrator. We selected him
25 after a national search. During that process, we engaged all members of the 26 branch and solicited their thoughts on the finalists' vision statements as well as 27 their thoughts after in-person and virtual town hall appearances. We made 28 every attempt to run a transparent process. Since that time, we also hired a new 29 Director of Finance, a new Director of Court Services, and we are in the 30 ongoing process of hiring a new Director of Human Resources.

31
32 Next, our court changed how we handle administrative responsibilities.
33 Traditionally, the chief justice handled all of the administrative responsibilities,
34 and the rest of the court received reports on various actions. While the goal of 35 insulating a majority of the court from matters on which it might ultimately 36 have to render a decision was laudable, it was not workable. We realized that 37 we all needed to be much more involved in the running of the branch. We were 38 too disconnected from the employees. As a result, we decided to assign justices
39 to the different departments or functions within the branch. Justice Márquez
40 is assigned to the clerks of court, Justice Hood to financial, Justice Gabriel to 41 IT, Justice Hart to the court executives, and Justice Samour to human resources.
42 We are going to let Justice Berkenkotter get her legs under her before we give 43 her an assignment. At the time, I remained the liaison to probation. We 44 implemented this system to not only improve the flow of information but also 45 to hopefully develop relationships with the employees of the branch. We 46 realized that important information was not getting to the chief justice or the 47 court. If information needed to reach leadership, we wanted our people to feel 48 comfortable approaching and talking with us. In addition, we instituted
49 rotational terms for our chief justice. Justice Márquez will be the next chief.
50 We did this, in part, to keep fresh eyes on things. We now embrace the 51 philosophy that seven brains are better than one and fourteen ears are better
52 than two: There is a real benefit to relying on the collective wisdom and 53 experience of all seven justices.

1 I would be remiss if I didn't recognize another crisis around how our minority
2 communities perceive their treatment in the criminal justice system. To that 3 end, we also stepped up our efforts to help diversify the bench. We feel that is 4 an important part of enacting real, lasting change. One of the best ways to 5 ensure equal justice for all is to have judges that reflect the communities they 6 serve. Too that end, five years ago, several of our justices formed a "Bench
7 Diversity Dream Team" through Colorado's Center for Legal Inclusiveness.
8 The Bench Dream Team became a vehicle to encourage diverse lawyers to 9 consider a career on the bench and to help them navigate the judicial 10 application process. Bench Dream Team members have volunteered countless 11 hours hosting informational sessions, meeting with potential applicants, and 12 conducting mock interviews. As part of the Dream Team's efforts, Justice
13 Márquez teamed with the Center for Legal Inclusiveness, the diverse bar
14 associations, judges, nominating commission members, and 9News alum Adele
15 Arakawa to produce a training video for new nominating commission members.
16 Among other things, that video teaches commissioners how to combat implicit 17 bias.

18
19 Retired Judge Gary Jackson, through his tireless work, made diversifying the 20 bench an urgent priority. Representative Leslie Herod suggested that we hire
21 a Judicial Outreach Coordinator, who would help identify and recruit diverse
22 candidates to the bench. Because of the hard work of the Bench Dream Team;
23 Judge Jackson; Representative Herod; Sumi Lee, our outreach coordinator;
24 Patty Jarzobsky; and many, many others, we have made some inroads. I am
25 proud to say that Governor Polis appointed more Black women to the 26 bench—five—in the one-year period between September 1, 2019, and August 27 31, 2020, than in the previous twenty-five years combined. In addition,
28 fifty-nine percent of judges appointed by Governor Polis in that same time
29 period were female. That has resulted in a nearly 13 percent increase in female 30 judges in the last four years. With that said, the protest for racial justice which 31 took place this past summer and more recent events remind us that much work 32 remains to be done.

33
34 Those events have led us to significantly increase our training around issues of 35 racial equality. Judges Paul Dunkelman and Adam Espinoza—through their 36 leadership roles as Presidents of the District Court and County Court Judges
37 Associations, respectively—have put on a continuing series of excellent
38 webinars on these issues. The webinars are extremely well-attended by judges 39 across the state and, in addition, several districts have made discussing racial 40 justice a special priority. I want to acknowledge the work of the court of 41 appeals. That court established an Inclusivity, Diversity, Equity, and 42 Anti-Racism Committee to combat systemic racism and injustice by promoting 43 acceptance, respect, and value for all persons and creating an ongoing dialogue
44 to confront biases. To date, the Committee has undertaken a number of 45 projects, including spearheading amendments to the Court of Appeals' strategic 46 plan regarding diversity and inclusion, compiling and sharing resources about 47 DEI trainings, and facilitating discussions inside and outside the court,
48 including with regional law schools and law students on these issues.

49
50 In the vein of openness, we also looked at the court's practices around sealing
51 records. This past December, with the able assistance of the Colorado Criminal 52 Rules Committee, our court added Rule 55.1 to our Rules of Criminal 53 Procedure. Rule 55.1 is a rule of transparency and accessibility. To borrow 54 from Justice Louis Brandeis, by allowing better and more expedient access to 55 court records, the new rule recognizes sunlight as the best disinfectant. Once
56 the rule takes effect this May, a trial court will not be able to limit the public's

1 access to any part of a court record in a criminal case unless the judge makes 2 written findings that (1) a substantial interest would be served by making the 3 court record or any part of it inaccessible to the public, (2) there is no less 4 restrictive means than making the court record or part of it inaccessible to the 5 public in order to achieve or protect the substantial interest identified, and 6 (3) any substantial interest identified overrides the presumptive public access
7 to the entire court record. Additionally, any order limiting public access to a 8 court record or to any part of it must indicate the date or event certain by which 9 the order will expire. This will ensure that orders limiting public access do not 10 linger unnecessarily.

11
12 I bring these changes up not to claim that we have already changed the branch's
13 culture but only to demonstrate that we are committed to continued reflection
14 on how we can improve. It will take time, but we are committed to the cause.

15
16 I started my speech by recognizing that we as a branch are in crisis. But we 17 also face another crisis. This, however, is not a crisis of our own making. This 18 is the practical crisis caused by the pandemic.

19
20 To be clear: our trial courts and probation officers have borne the brunt of the 21 effects of the pandemic. Despite risks to their health, our trial courts and 22 probation departments have remained open for business at all times during the 23 pandemic. Our people have acted with the courage of first responders by doing
24 the work required. In my opinion, they have been heroic. While we have made
25 significant changes to how we do business by having virtual and telephonic
26 hearings when possible, there are some hearings that simply require in-person
27 proceedings. Our chief judges have been amazing in how they have innovated 28 and now have modified courtrooms to allow these hearings that must be held 29 in person to be as safe as possible.

30
31 But then there are jury trials. They just have not been possible for much of the 32 past twelve months for safety reasons. As a result, we face an unprecedented 33 backlog of jury trials. I will give you a few numbers that demonstrate our 34 plight. Over the past five years, we have had an average of 2,716 jury trials,
35 with 2,400 of those being criminal trials. On January 19, 2021, we had 14,635
36 jury trials scheduled, statewide—with over 10,000 of those being criminal
37 trials. What that means is that we have somewhere between four and five times
38 the number of criminal jury trials scheduled that we try in an average year.
39 And crime has not stopped, serious crime as not stopped. We come to you,
40 asking for help. But before I address what our strategy is to confront this 41 unprecedented challenge, I want to share my greatest fear about what I am 42 asking.

44 I recognize that many of you are angry at the branch for the unwanted attention
45 that it has brought to government. You have every right to feel myriad 46 different emotions about the situation. My plea is that you don't take out your 47 anger on our trial courts and on probation, because this is about us serving the 48 people of this state. So I ask you: If you are mad, then be mad at me.

49
50 Our trial courts need help to provide the access to justice that our citizens need 51 and deserve. Without assistance from the General Assembly and, ultimately,
52 the Governor, we will not be able to adequately address the tsunami of jury
53 trials that await. I've had discussions with some of you about one of the 54 biggest challenges—enforcing a defendant's statutory right to trial within six 55 months of entering a not guilty plea. In the early stages of the pandemic, with 56 the assistance of the Criminal Rules Committee, we were proactive on this front

1 and adopted amendments to Rule 24 of our Rules of Criminal Procedure. This
2 amendment provides us flexibility while we're in survival mode. Rule 24,
3 however, only applies so long as a fair jury pool cannot safely be assembled.
4 Therefore, once our trial courts are able to summon jurors with some semblance
5 of normalcy, we will face significant challenges in this area. We are going to 6 have thousands of trials with either ninety-day or six-month deadlines. We 7 need your help.

8
9 We are asking for three things: (1) We are asking that you revise the senior 10 judge program to create flexibility that will allow more of our most experienced 11 jurists to either preside over jury trials or to free up our currently sitting judges
12 to try more cases. We have recently retired judges who are willing and able to 13 step in but who do not want to commit to the required sixty- or ninety-day
14 contracts that currently are required by statute. We need more options for 15 length of service. We also need additional money to expand the program. We 16 have good judges on a waiting list, hoping to help. (2) We are asking for 17 additional staff and magistrates. As you may be aware, when the Governor
18 asked for a budget reduction last spring, we complied. After significant 19 soul-searching, we eliminated nearly two hundred positions, which required
20 laying off 110 people from every part of the branch. With the exception of one
21 position, we are only asking for staff to help the trial courts and probation. Jury
22 trials require staff, and conducting jury trials safely during and after a pandemic
23 requires more staff than usual. (3) We are asking you to allow us some 24 flexibility around the six-month statutory deadline. As I just mentioned, the 25 amendment to Rule 24 will no longer be effective once trials resume in earnest.

26
28 Just knowing that trials can be held will encourage resolution. Recently, I had 29 a meeting with many of my partners in the criminal justice system. This 30 included two chief judges, the Attorney General, the Public Defender, the 31 director of the Office of Alternative Defense Counsel, the head of the Colorado
32 District Attorneys' Council, several D.A.s, and others. It was a productive
33 meeting where we discussed developing a "Best Practice Template" for triaging
34 the backlog of cases. I welcome working with these same partners around 35 reasonable amendments to the six-month statutory deadline for criminal trials.

36
37 As I speak to you today, jury trials are slowly resuming in some judicial 38 districts, with others to follow in the coming months. I am continuing the 39 practice started by my predecessor, Chief Justice Coats, of empowering our 40 chief judges in each district to decide how and when to resume jury trials.
41 Despite criticism to the contrary, one size does not fit all in how individual
42 courts are run. For example, what works in Greeley may not work in Montrose
43 and vice-versa. That is because we have different positivity rates in different 44 counties, coupled with different courthouses with different facilities and 45 different technological capabilities. The decision of how and when to resume 46 trials has to be made at the local level. The chief judges are working extremely 47 hard, and they all have a common goal: to resume jury trials as soon as they 48 can be done safely. But even then, the trials will start slowly due to safety
49 protocols. We want our jurors safe when they serve.

50
51 The pandemic has also brought about some positive changes to practices in the 52 courts and probation departments. I fully expect that many of these new 53 practices will continue into the future. As just one example, many parents in 54 the Dependency and Neglect cases have difficulty traveling to and from court
55 due to a lack of dependable transportation. We have seen that many of the 56 review hearings in these cases—which can be brief if things are going

1 well—can be handled remotely, thus helping parents avoid missing work or 2 treatment. This practice will be employed across all case types as appropriate.
3

4 The pandemic complicated work for our probation departments, in particular,
5 because establishing the relationship between a probation officer and their
6 client is frequently the key to successfully completing probation. I am sure 7 everyone in this room has experienced the difficulties of connecting with 8 people via one of the virtual platforms. With that said, our probation officers 9 have made necessary adjustments and have remained committed to helping 10 their clients and providing services to the best of their ability.
11

12 When people talk about the work of the judicial branch, they often overlook
13 probation. But I want to remind everyone that probation remains the most 14 cost-effective method for supervising offenders. This fiscal year, an offender
15 incarcerated in the Department of Corrections will cost the state approximately 16 $46,866, an offender in the Community Corrections program approximately 17 $9,936, and an offender on parole approximately $6,924. An offender on 18 probation, by contrast, will cost the state about $1,662—a fraction of the cost 19 of any of the alternatives.
20

21 I also recognize that some people are under the impression that probation 22 operates as a sort of zero-tolerance, punitive system—that if, for example, an 23 offender on probation misses an appointment with her probation officer, the 24 officer will immediately file a motion to revoke probation. That’s just not 25 accurate. To the contrary, probation focuses on providing offenders with the 26 rehabilitation and support they need to regain control of their own lives and 27 contribute meaningfully to society. I want to share a story about one probation
28 client. Her story is not an outlier. I am going to share her story in her own 29 words:
30

31 “When I started probation, I came as a broken soul. When I came to my first 32 appointment, my children and I were bouncing between living in my truck and 33 a house filled with multiple dealers. We struggled with basic necessities like 34 finding a restroom and getting water. After a few months of failing regular 35 probation miserably, I was handed off to a new program: Specialized Drug 36 Offender Program.
37

38 “I sat in orientation and they discussed the program and the treatment provider,
39 Mile High Behavioral Healthcare. They identified so many resources, 40 expressed an underlying faith in us as addicts and our ability to recover, and 41 provided support from all angles. I left the room with tears in my eyes. This 42 is what I needed.
43

44 “I started treatment and saw my probation officers weekly. Treatment became 45 my family, probation officers my mentors. They helped instill my faith in 46 myself again. They believed in me and truly cared about my children and [me].
47

48 “Today, I am a Peer Coach. My future is limitless.”
49

50 Her probation officer said that this client was granted early termination and has 51 carried what she learned forward in her new life.
52

53 This is emblematic of the work of probation officers across the state. I know 54 from my time as a trial judge that probation officers take great pride in their 55 clients’ success and consider it a personal defeat when their clients fail. I am
56 proud to have such dedicated people as part of the branch.

1 Although I gave you a brief summary of who I am a few minutes ago, I
2 neglected to mention that, in the limited free time that I have as a justice, I
3 enjoy reading history—even if that means listening to a book on tape during my 4 commute. I’m particularly fond of Abraham Lincoln for his strength of 5 character, grace under pressure, and communication skills. If you visit my 6 office or home, you’ll notice multiple books on Lincoln, including one about 7 his time “riding the circuit” in Illinois as a young lawyer. As he so often did,
8 he wrote something that still is true today.

9
10 In his “Second Annual Message to Congress”—delivered December 2, 1862, 11 after one of the costliest battles of the early Civil War, when he feared that the 12 Union’s resolve to win the war was waning—Lincoln stated, and the words
13 have meaning to me today, that “The dogmas of the quiet past are inadequate
14 to the stormy present. The occasion is piled high with difficulty, and we must 15 rise with the occasion. As our case is new, so must we think anew and act
16 anew.” Lincoln was talking about the survival of the country. I am talking 17 about maintaining the independence and integrity of the judicial branch. And 18 so I echo his words: We will think anew, and we will act anew.

20 I want to assure you that we—the judicial branch—will bring that the same 21 clear-eyed perspective, energy, and determination to tackling the challenges that 22 face the branch and the administration of justice in Colorado during these 23 trying times. We are committed to lifting the current clouds over the branch 24 and making it, once again, a rightful point of pride. We are going to get this 25 right.

26
27 Thank you for the privilege of addressing you today.

42 HB21-1119 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to 43 the Committee of the Whole with favorable
44 recommendation:

45 Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and 46 substitute:

47 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
48 assembly finds and declares that:

49 (a) People who have known someone who died by suicide in the 50 last year were 1.6 times more likely to have suicidal thoughts, 2.9 times
51 more likely to have a plan for suicide themselves, and 3.7 times more 52 likely to have attempted suicide themselves;

53 (b) More peace officers die of suicide than in the line of duty;
54

1 (c) An estimated three hundred to four hundred doctors die of
2 suicide annually, a rate of twenty-eight to forty per one hundred thousand,
3 which is more than double that of the general population;

4 (d) Suicide is a leading cause of death for school-aged children in 5 Colorado. After learning about the suicide of a schoolmate, children are 6 just as susceptible as adults to attempt suicide, which is why they need
7 care to help them cope with the after-effects of suicide.

8 (e) Children are at risk by just knowing about a friend's or 9 schoolmate's attempt, and adolescents who know about a friend's suicide
10 attempt are nearly twice as likely to attempt suicide themselves one year
11 later;

12 (f) Suicide risk is at its highest in the first week after discharge
13 from an inpatient setting. This risk is one hundred and two times higher 14 in men and two hundred and forty-six times higher in women than in their 15 counterparts in the general population.

16 (g) In addition to the tragedy of lost lives and disability due to 17 suicide and suicide attempts, the fiscal costs of suicide and suicide
18 attempts are enormous. Every suicide death results in an economic loss 19 of approximately one million three hundred thousand dollars, and every 20 suicide attempt results in an economic loss of approximately six hundred 21 and fifty thousand dollars.

22 (h) A survey by the suicide prevention commission found that 23 behavioral health providers have gaps in knowledge about evidence-based 24 practices and training related to comprehensive suicide prevention and 25 that those providers generally reported that they would benefit from 26 additional training; and

27 (i) Comprehensive suicide-related training of primary care
28 providers enhances the level of care that suicidal people receive and 29 increases provider confidence and competence and the ability to provide 30 effective and life-saving treatment.

31 (2) Therefore, the general assembly finds and declares it is 32 necessary for the state to spread its suicide focus and efforts beyond
33 prevention to include intervention and postvention services as part of a 34 comprehensive suicide prevention focus for persons affected by suicide
35 and suicide attempts, including:

36 (a) Making comprehensive suicide prevention education and 37 training available to providers to learn about aftercare for suicide loss and 38 suicide attempt survivors;

39 (b) Making comprehensive suicide prevention education and 40 training available for first and last responders to suicides and suicide
41 attempts;

42 (c) Advising on follow-up care for suicide attempt survivors,
43 including specialized counseling;

44 (d) Comprehensive suicide prevention training for primary care
45 and behavioral health providers in suicide assessment, treatment, 46 management, and postvention to help decrease the suicide rate in 47 Colorado; and

48 (e) Comprehensive suicide prevention training for K-12 educators
49 on the importance of postvention efforts and communication with the 50 students to address loss and the potential of suicidal contagion after a 51 suicide or suicide attempt.

52 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 22-2-127.9, amend

14 "SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 19-3-217 as 15 follows:

16 19-3-217. Parent-child visitation upon removal. (1) AT ANY
17 HEARING HELD PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-3-403 (2) OR (3.5), THE COURT
18 SHALL ENTER TEMPORARY ORDERS FOR REASONABLE VISITATION WITH THE 19 CHILD'S PARENT THAT IS CONSISTENT WITH THE AGE AND DEVELOPMENTAL 20 NEEDS OF A CHILD IF THE COURT FINDS THAT VISITATION IS IN A CHILD'S 21 BEST INTERESTS. THE COURT SHALL ORDER CONTACT BETWEEN THE 22 PARENT AND CHILD, WHICH CONTACT MAY INCLUDE BUT IS NOT LIMITED
23 TO TELEPHONE, VIRTUAL, OR IN-PERSON VISITS, COMMENCING WITHIN 24 SEVENTY-TWO HOURS AFTER ANY HEARING PURSUANT TO SECTION
25 19-3-403 (2) OR (3.5), EXCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, AND ANY 26 COURT HOLIDAY. THE COURT MAY AUTHORIZE AN EXTENSION OF TIME FOR 27 CONTACT TO COMMENCE IF THE DELAY IS AGREED UPON BY THE PARENT, 28 COUNTY DEPARTMENT, AND GUARDIAN AD LITEM OR IF THE COURT FINDS
29 THAT A DELAY IN CONTACT IS IN THE CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS.

30 (2) NOTHING IN THIS SECTION RESTRICTS THE COURT FROM 31 GRANTING DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY TO THE DEPARTMENT AND 32 GUARDIAN AD LITEM TO INCREASE OPPORTUNITIES FOR ADDITIONAL 33 PARENT-CHILD CONTACTS OR SIBLING CONTACTS WITHOUT FURTHER
34 COURT ORDER.

35 (3) ABSENT THE ISSUANCE OF AN EMERGENCY ORDER, A PARENT
36 GRANTED VISITATION IS ENTITLED TO A HEARING PRIOR TO AN ONGOING
37 REDUCTION IN, SUSPENSION OF, OR INCREASE IN THE LEVEL OF 38 SUPERVISION, INCLUDING A CHANGE FROM IN-PERSON VISITATION TO 39 VIRTUAL VISITATION. IF THE COURT ISSUES AN EMERGENCY ORDER
40 SUSPENDING, REDUCING, OR RESTRICTING VISITATION, A PARENT IS 41 ENTITLED TO A HEARING WITHIN SEVENTY-TWO HOURS AFTER THE ORDER
42 IS ISSUED, EXCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, AND COURT HOLIDAYS. THE 43 COURT NEED NOT HOLD A HEARING IF THERE IS AGREEMENT BY THE 44 PETITIONER, GUARDIAN AD LITEM, AND PARENT TO THE REDUCTION, 45 SUSPENSION, OR INCREASE IN LEVEL OF SUPERVISION OF VISITS. ANY SUCH 46 AGREEMENT MUST BE REDUCED TO WRITING AND FILED WITH THE COURT.
47 NOTHING IN THIS SECTION PREVENTS THE COUNTY DEPARTMENT FROM 48 CANCELING A VISIT IF THE CHILD'S HEALTH OR WELFARE WOULD BE 49 ENDANGERED OR IF THE PARENT CONSENTS TO THE CANCELLATION OF THE 50 VISIT.

51

(4) NOTHING IN THIS SECTION REQUIRES OR PERMITS A COUNTY DEPARTMENT TO ARRANGE A VISIT IF THE VISIT WOULD VIOLATE AN EXISTING PROTECTION ORDER IN ANY CASE PENDING IN THIS STATE OR ANY OTHER STATE. THE COUNTY DEPARTMENT IS NOT REQUIRED TO PRODUCE A CHILD FOR COURT-ORDERED VISITATION IF THE VISITATION IS MADE IMPOSSIBLE DUE TO THE POLICIES OF A FACILITY WHERE THE PARENT IS INCARCERATED OR IN TREATMENT.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 19-3-403, amend (7) as follows:

19-3-403. Temporary custody - hearing - time limits - restriction - rules. (7) The court may also issue temporary orders for legal custody as provided in section 19-1-115. THE COURT SHALL ENTER VISITATION ORDERS CONSISTENT WITH SECTION 19-3-217.

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 19-5-208, add (4.5) as follows:

19-5-208. Petition for adoption - open adoption - post-adoption contact agreement. (4.5) (a) AN AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO PURSUANT TO THIS SUBSECTION (4.5) IS CONSIDERED AN OPEN ADOPTION.

(b) THE PETITIONER MAY REQUEST A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT FOR CONTACT BETWEEN A CHILD AND THE BIRTH PARENT OR PARENTS; A BIRTH RELATIVE, AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 19-3-605 (1); OR AN INDIAN TRIBE IF THE CHILD IS A MEMBER OF THE INDIAN TRIBE. A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT MAY INCLUDE PROVISIONS FOR CONTACT, VISITATION, OR THE EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION, AND THE GROUNDS, IF ANY, ON WHICH THE ADOPTIVE PARENT MAY DECLINE TO PERMIT VISITS OR CEASE PROVIDING CONTACT OR INFORMATION. IF A CHILD IS AVAILABLE FOR ADOPTION THROUGH AN EXPEDITED RELINQUISHMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-103.5, THE CONTACT AGREEMENT MUST BE LIMITED TO CONTACT BETWEEN THE CHILD AND THE BIRTH PARENTS AND BIOLOGICAL SIBLINGS OF THE CHILD.

(c) IF A CHILD IS TWELVE YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER, THE COURT SHALL NOT ORDER A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT UNLESS THE CHILD CONSENTS TO ALL TERMS OF THE CONTACT AGREEMENT.

(d) THE COURT SHALL INCLUDE THE POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT IN THE ADOPTION DECREE IF THE COURT FINDS THE CONTACT AGREEMENT IS IN THE CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS, AFTER CONSIDERING THE CHILD'S WISHES AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION.

(e) A PARENT WHO HAS RELINQUISHED PARENTAL RIGHTS PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-104, OR WHOSE PARENTAL RIGHTS HAVE BEEN TERMINATED PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-3-604 OR 19-5-105, OR ANY BIRTH RELATIVE, AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 19-3-605 (1), MUST NOT BE A PARTY TO THE ADOPTION. ACCESS TO THE ADOPTION FILE, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT AND ANY PLEADINGS OR ORDERS MADE PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION TO ENFORCE THE CONTACT AGREEMENT, IS GOVERNED BY PART 3 OF THIS ARTICLE 5.

(f) A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO PURSUANT TO THIS SUBSECTION (4.5) MUST BE SUBMITTED TO THE COURT ON A STANDARDIZED AFFIDAVIT FORM PRESCRIBED BY THE JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT THAT CONTAINS THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS ACKNOWLEDGED BY ALL PARTIES TO THE CONTACT AGREEMENT:

(I) AFTER THE ENTRY OF A DECREE FOR ADOPTION, AN ADOPTION, RELINQUISHMENT, OR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS CANNOT BE SET ASIDE DUE TO THE FAILURE OF THE ADOPTIVE PARENT, BIOLOGICAL PARENT, A BIRTH RELATIVE, OR THE CHILD TO FOLLOW THE TERMS OF THE CONTACT AGREEMENT OR ANY SUBSEQUENT MODIFICATIONS OF THE

1 AGREEMENT; AND

2 (II) A DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES OR LITIGATION
3 BROUGHT PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-217 TO ENFORCE OR TERMINATE
4 THE CONTACT AGREEMENT DOES NOT AFFECT THE VALIDITY OF THE 5 ADOPTION, RELINQUISHMENT, OR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS AND 6 IS NOT A BASIS FOR ORDERS AFFECTING THE CUSTODY OF THE CHILD.

7 (g) NOTHING IN THIS SUBSECTION (4.5) PERMITS THE COURT TO 8 ORDER ONGOING CONTACT OR OTHER DUTIES FOR THE PETITIONER WHEN
9 THE PETITIONER DOES NOT CONSENT TO A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT
10 AGREEMENT AS SET FORTH IN THIS SUBSECTION (4.5).

11 (h) IN ANY CASE WHERE A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT
12 IS BEING CONSIDERED BY THE COURT AND A GUARDIAN AD LITEM IS 13 CURRENTLY APPOINTED FOR THE CHILD PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-3-203, 14 THE COURT SHALL APPOINT THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM TO REPRESENT THE 15 BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD WITH RESPECT TO THE CONTACT
16 AGREEMENT. THE DUTIES OF THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM OR THE CHILD'S 17 ATTORNEY TERMINATE UPON THE ENTRY OF THE DECREE OF ADOPTION, 18 UNLESS OTHERWISE ORDERED BY THE COURT.

19 SECTION 4. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 19-5-217 as
20 follows:

21 19-5-217. Enforcement or termination of post-adoption
22 contact agreement. (1) IF THE DECREE OF ADOPTION CONTAINS A
23 POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-208
24 (4.5), THE COURT RETAINS JURISDICTION AFTER THE DECREE OF ADOPTION
25 IS ENTERED TO HEAR MOTIONS TO ENFORCE OR TERMINATE THE CONTACT
26 AGREEMENT, OR TO ENTER STIPULATED AGREEMENTS OF THE PARTIES TO 27 MODIFY THE CONTACT AGREEMENT.

28 (2) THE COURT MAY APPOINT A GUARDIAN AD LITEM FOR THE 29 ADOPTED CHILD AT THE TIME OF ANY ACTION FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OR 30 TERMINATION OF THE POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT IF THE COURT
31 DETERMINES THAT CONSIDERATION OF THE FACTORS SET FORTH IN 32 SECTION 19-5-103 (9)(a) REQUIRE THE APPOINTMENT OF A GUARDIAN AD
33 LITEM. IN ALL ADOPTIONS OTHER THAN THOSE IN WHICH THE CHILD IS 34 PLACED BY THE COUNTY DEPARTMENT, A PARTY OR PARTIES SHALL PAY
35 REASONABLE FEES FOR THE SERVICES OF THE GUARDIAN AD LITEM AND 36 COUNSEL FOR THE CHILD, UNLESS A PARTY IS INDIGENT, IN WHICH CASE
37 SUCH FEES SHALL BE PAID BY THE OFFICE OF THE CHILD'S REPRESENTATIVE.

38 (3) IF THERE IS A POST-ADOPTION AGREEMENT FOR CONTACT
39 ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-208 (4.5), A PARTY TO THE 40 CONTACT AGREEMENT, EVEN IF HE OR SHE IS NOT A PARTY TO THE 41 ADOPTION, MAY FILE A MOTION TO ENFORCE OR TERMINATE THE CONTACT
42 AGREEMENT AS SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION.

43 (4) PRIOR TO FILING A MOTION SEEKING THE ENFORCEMENT OR 44 TERMINATION OF A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT ESTABLISHED
45 PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-208 (4.5), THE PARTY SEEKING ENFORCEMENT
46 OR TERMINATION SHALL SHOW THAT THE PARTY ATTEMPTED IN GOOD
47 FAITH TO RESOLVE THE DISPUTED MATTERS THROUGH MEDIATION OR 48 OTHER METHOD OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION. THIS REQUIREMENT IS WAIVED
49 IF THE PARTY'S WHEREABOUTS ARE UNKNOWN AND THE PARTY CANNOT BE 50 LOCATED DESPITE DILIGENT EFFORTS TO DO SO.

51 (5) THE COURT SHALL NOT TERMINATE A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT
52 AGREEMENT ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-208 (4.5) UNLESS 53 THE MOVING PARTY ESTABLISHES THAT THERE HAS BEEN A CHANGE IN 54 CIRCUMSTANCES AND THAT THE CONTACT AGREEMENT IS NO LONGER IN 55 THE ADOPTED CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS. FOLLOWING THE ADOPTION, THE

1 COURT SHALL PRESUME THAT THE ADOPTIVE PARENT'S JUDGEMENT IS IN 2 THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD IN ANY ACTION SEEKING TO ENFORCE
3 OR TERMINATE THE CONTACT AGREEMENT, AND SUCH PRESUMPTION MAY
4 ONLY BE OVERCOME BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE. A
5 POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT MAY NOT LIMIT THE ADOPTIVE
6 PARENT'S ABILITY TO MOVE OUT OF STATE.

7 (6) AT ANY TIME AFTER THE ENTRY OF A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT
8 AGREEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-208 (4.5), THE PARTIES TO THE 9 AGREEMENT MAY FILE WITH THE COURT A SIGNED, MODIFIED
10 POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT. THE COURT SHALL NOT MODIFY
11 THE TERMS OF THE INITIAL POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT ABSENT
12 THE CONSENT OF ALL PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT, BUT THE COURT MAY 13 ENFORCE OR TERMINATE THE AGREEMENT OVER THE OBJECTION OF A 14 PARTY TO THE AGREEMENT. AN ADOPTED CHILD TWELVE YEARS OF AGE OR 15 OLDER AT THE TIME OF THE TERMINATION OR MODIFICATION OF THE 16 CONTACT AGREEMENT MUST CONSENT TO ANY MODIFICATION OR 17 TERMINATION OF THE CONTACT AGREEMENT.

18 (7) THE COURT MAY CONSIDER DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE AND 19 OFFERS OF PROOF IN DETERMINING MOTIONS TO ENFORCE OR TERMINATE
20 A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO 21 SECTION 19-5-208 (4.5), OR MAY, IN ITS DISCRETION, HOLD A HEARING ON 22 THE MOTION.

23 (8) THE COURT SHALL NOT ORDER FURTHER INVESTIGATION OR 24 EVALUATION BY ANY PUBLIC OR PRIVATE AGENCY OR INDIVIDUAL
25 RELATING TO A POST-ADOPTION CONTACT AGREEMENT ESTABLISHED
26 PURSUANT TO SECTION 19-5-208 (4.5) ABSENT A FINDING BY CLEAR AND 27 CONVINCING EVIDENCE THAT THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD MAY BE 28 PROTECTED OR ADVANCED ONLY BY FURTHER INVESTIGATION OR 29 EVALUATION AND THAT THE INVESTIGATION OR EVALUATION WILL NOT 30 DISTURB THE STABILITY OF THE CHILD'S HOME TO THE DETRIMENT OF THE 31 CHILD.

32 SECTION 5. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add part 9 to article
33 3 of title 19 as follows:

34 PART 9

35 TASK FORCE ON HIGH-QUALITY PARENTING TIME

36 19-3-901. Legislative declaration. (1) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
37 FINDS AND DECLARES THAT:

38 (a) COLORADO HAS A STRONG INTEREST IN PRESERVING AND 39 STRENGTHENING FAMILY TIES AND REDUCING SEPARATION TRAUMA TO 40 CHILDREN WHO ARE REMOVED FROM THEIR BIRTH PARENTS;

41 (b) THE REMOVAL AND SUBSEQUENT CONTINUED SEPARATION
42 BETWEEN CHILD AND BIRTH PARENT MAKES SUSTAINING PRIMARY 43 RELATIONSHIPS DIFFICULT AND REUNIFICATION MORE PROBLEMATIC, AND 44 THE LOSS A CHILD EXPERIENCES WHEN SEPARATED FROM HIS OR HER BIRTH
45 PARENT OR PARENTS IS PROFOUND, SOMETIMES LASTING INTO 46 ADULTHOOD;

47 (c) FOR THESE REASONS, IT IS IMPORTANT TO ESTABLISH CLEAR
48 STANDARDS TO ACHIEVE CONSISTENT PRACTICES RELATING TO THE 49 AVAILABILITY OF HIGH-QUALITY PARENTING TIME FOR CHILDREN WHO 50 HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM A BIRTH PARENT BY GOVERNMENT ACTION;
51 AND

52 (d) CLEAR STANDARDS AND CONSISTENT PRACTICES WILL HELP 53 ENSURE THAT ALL PARENTS AND CHILDREN HAVE A FAIR PROCESS FOR 54 DETERMINING A PARENTING TIME PLAN THAT IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF 55 CHILDREN AND THAT PROMOTES POSITIVE OUTCOMES FOR FAMILIES.

1 (2) THEREFORE, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY DECLARES THAT IT IS 2 VALUABLE TO CREATE A TASK FORCE OF PERSONS WITH EXPERIENCE IN OR 3 KNOWLEDGE OF THE CHILD WELFARE POLICY SYSTEM TO EXAMINE THE
4 CURRENT POLICIES AND STATUTES GOVERNING PARENTING TIME, TO STUDY
5 BEST PRACTICES FOR THE PROVISION OF AND DETERMINATION OF 6 INDIVIDUALIZED PLANS FOR PARENTING TIME, AND TO MAKE
7 RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND TO THE GENERAL

43 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. The general assembly
44 finds that showup identifications are disfavored as inherently suggestive
45 because, when compared to properly conducted lineups and photo arrays,
46 showups are more likely to yield false identifications. Because of the high
47 likelihood of misidentification during a showup, the general assembly
48 deems showups to be admissible only when the prosecution can
49 demonstrate law enforcement's strict compliance with showup
50 requirements.

51 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 16-1-109, amend
52 (2)(h), (3)(a) introductory portion, (4), and (5); repeal (3)(b); and add (6)

31 16-1-110 AND UPDATE THE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES AS NECESSARY.
32 The policies and procedures must include, but need not be limited to, the

41 ~~developed and approved in 2015 by the Colorado attorney general and the~~ 42 ~~Colorado district attorneys' council.~~

45 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
46 assembly finds that:

47 (a) According to the Urban Institute, home ownership is currently 48 the largest single source of wealth building, but in Colorado, a significant 49 racial gap in home ownership rates exists;

50 (b) In 2018:

51 (I) Sixty-eight percent of White households were home owners,
52 compared to thirty-seven percent of Black households and fifty-two 53 percent of Latino households. This is especially problematic because 54 home ownership plays a bigger role in building wealth for communities
55 of color than it does for White households. According to a recent study, 56 home ownership amounts to fifty-three percent of wealth for Blacks and

1 thirty-nine percent of wealth for Whites.

2 (II) The national mortgage loan denial rate for Black applicants
3 was double that of White applicants, at eighteen percent versus nine
4 percent. Among Black and Latino households, the most common reason
5 for denial was debt-to-income ratios. The second most common reason
6 was credit history.

7 (c) Due to traditional credit scoring models, many communities
8 of color are credit invisible or unscorable. Roughly fifteen percent of 9 Blacks and Latinos are credit invisible compared to ten percent of Whites;
10 similarly, thirteen percent of Blacks and twelve percent of Latinos are 11 credit unscorable compared to seven percent of Whites. Credit invisibility 12 and unscorability are barriers to financial opportunity that have adverse 13 effects lasting generations.

14 (2) The general assembly also finds that:

15 (a) Communities of color find it difficult to gain access to credit,
16 especially when it comes to mortgages;

17 (b) For renters, the rental payment is often their single largest 18 credit or contractual obligation;

19 (c) Reporting rental payments is a way to even the playing field
20 and enable communities of color, lower-income households, and residents 21 of rural communities to generate and build credit without taking on 22 additional debt; and

23 (d) Reporting rental payments allows renters to build credit in 24 much the same way that home owners build credit through the reporting
25 of mortgage payments.

26 (3) Therefore, the general assembly declares that it is in the best
27 interests of the state to create a pilot program whereby participant tenants
28 may elect to have their rent payment information reported to consumer
29 reporting agencies and thereby build and improve their credit.

30 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 24-36-123 as
31 follows:

23 PETITIONING TO TRANSFER PROBATION SUPERVISION AFTER A PLEA OR 24 SENTENCE IN A CASE TO A JURISDICTION WITH A VETERANS TREATMENT
25 COURT PURSUANT TO SECTION 18-1.3-202.5.

26 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 18-1.3-202.5 as
27 follows:

28 18-1.3-202.5. Veterans court probation supervision. (1) IF THE
29 DEFENDANT IS A VETERAN WHO IS SUFFERING FROM A DIAGNOSABLE
30 MENTAL HEALTH CONDITION THAT IS RELATED TO THE VETERAN'S

23 "SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add part 3 to article
24 26 of title 17 as follows:

25 PART 3

26 RESTRICTIVE HOUSING IN JAILS

27 17-26-301. Legislative declaration. (1) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
28 FINDS THAT:

29 (a) PLACING INDIVIDUALS WITH SERIOUS MENTAL ILLNESS IN 30 RESTRICTIVE HOUSING, ALSO KNOWN AS SOLITARY CONFINEMENT, WITHIN 31 A LOCAL JAIL IS INAPPROPRIATE AND CAUSES FURTHER HARM TO THE 32 INDIVIDUAL;

33 (b) ACCORDING TO THE NATIONAL COMMISSION ON 34 CORRECTIONAL HEALTH CARE, PROLONGED SOLITARY CONFINEMENT IS 35 CRUEL, INHUMANE, AND DEGRADING TREATMENT AND HARMFUL TO AN 36 INDIVIDUAL'S HEALTH, AND JUVENILES, INDIVIDUALS WITH SERIOUS
37 MENTAL ILLNESS, AND PREGNANT WOMEN SHOULD BE EXCLUDED FROM 38 SOLITARY CONFINEMENT OF ANY DURATION;

39 (c) THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION, UNITED NATIONS, AND 40 OTHER INTERNATIONAL BODIES HAVE RECOGNIZED THAT SOLITARY
41 CONFINEMENT IS HARMFUL TO HEALTH;

42 (d) PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECTS CAUSED BY PLACEMENT IN 43 ISOLATION CAN INCLUDE SELF-HARM, SUICIDE, PARANOIA, PSYCHOSIS, 44 COGNITIVE DISTURBANCES, PERCEPTUAL DISTORTIONS, OBSESSIVE
45 THOUGHTS, ANXIETY, AND DEPRESSION;

46 (e) STUDIES HAVE SHOWN THAT THE PSYCHOLOGICAL STRESS
47 CREATED FROM SOLITARY CONFINEMENT COMPARES TO THE DISTRESS OF
48 PHYSICAL TORTURE. ACCORDING TO UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
49 THELTON HENDERSON, PUTTING AN INDIVIDUAL WITH A SERIOUS MENTAL
50 ILLNESS IN SOLITARY CONFINEMENT IS THE EQUIVALENT OF PUTTING A 51 PERSON WITH ASTHMA IN A PLACE WITH LITTLE AIR.
52

1 (f) IN 2012, A TASK FORCE APPOINTED BY THE UNITED STATES
2 ATTORNEY GENERAL CONCLUDED THAT NOWHERE IS THE DAMAGING
3 IMPACT OF INCARCERATION ON VULNERABLE CHILDREN MORE OBVIOUS
4 THAN WHEN IT INVOLVES SOLITARY CONFINEMENT. JUVENILES
5 EXPERIENCE SYMPTOMS OF PARANOIA, ANXIETY, AND DEPRESSION EVEN 6 AFTER VERY SHORT PERIODS OF ISOLATION.

7 (g) THE UNITED NATIONS STANDARD MINIMUM RULES FOR THE 8 TREATMENT OF PRISONERS STATE THAT SOLITARY CONFINEMENT SHOULD 9 BE PROHIBITED IN CASES INVOLVING CHILDREN AND IN THE CASE OF 10 ADULTS WITH MENTAL OR PHYSICAL DISABILITIES WHEN THEIR 11 CONDITIONS WOULD BE EXACERBATED BY SUCH MEASURES; AND

12 (h) INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS ESTABLISHED BY THE UNITED 13 NATIONS RULES FOR THE TREATMENT OF WOMEN PRISONERS AND 14 NON-CUSTODIAL MEASURES FOR WOMEN OFFENDERS STATE THAT 15 PREGNANT WOMEN SHOULD NEVER BE PLACED IN SOLITARY CONFINEMENT
16 AS THEY ARE ESPECIALLY SUSCEPTIBLE TO ITS HARMFUL PSYCHOLOGICAL
17 EFFECTS.

18 (2) THEREFORE, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY DECLARES THAT DUE TO 19 THE SUBSTANTIAL NEGATIVE IMPACTS OF PLACING JUVENILES AND ADULTS
20 WITH SPECIFIC HEALTH CONDITIONS IN RESTRICTIVE HOUSING, THE STATE
21 MUST TAKE IMMEDIATE STEPS TO END AND PROHIBIT THE USE OF 22 RESTRICTIVE HOUSING OF JUVENILES AND ADULTS WITH SPECIFIC HEALTH
23 CONDITIONS IN COLORADO JAILS.

RESIGNATION

23

24
25 April 14, 2021

26

27 Dear Mr. Robin Jones,

28

29 It is with heavy heart and deep gratitude that I submit my letter of 30 resignation from the General Assembly of Colorado, effective April 16th,
31 2021. On April 6th, 2021 the people of Fort Collins, Colorado elected me
32 to be their next Mayor, effective April 27th.

33

34 While I am looking forward to my role in my hometown, I want to 35 acknowledge what the legislature has meant to me. I was first elected in 36 2014, my 50th year. I quit my career as a special education professional 37 to embark on a full-time commitment to public service. In the past seven 38 years, I have learned and grown more than I ever imagined. I learned 39 new content and came to understand new processes and procedures. But 40 the greatest pleasure and privilege was the people I met and worked 41 with—the public, the non-partisan staff, the lobbyists and the elected 42 officials. Colorado is strong and resilient and in good hands.

1 Be well,
2 /signed/
